LEGISLATIVE GRAFTER TO SERVE THREE YEARS BEGINS TERM AT ONCE

(By United Press.)

Columbus, Ohio, February 26—Rodney J. Deigle, former senate sergeant-at-arms, must serve three years in the penitentiary for complicity in legislative bribery deals last spring.

The Supreme court today affirmed his conviction in the lower court, thereby holding the entrapment and use of the dictagraph valid and opening the way for the prosecution of the trials of the rest of the men caught in the trap sprung by Burns detectives last spring.

Judges Shauck, Price, Donahue and Johnson voted to affirm the conviction while Judges Spear and Davis did not vote either way, they having been ill when the cases were considered.

Attorney General Hogan said that he was anxious to go ahead with the trials of the other legislators.

"These trials will have first call in my office," said Hogan.

Senator L. R. Andrews of Lawrence county will probably be the next man to face trial." Prosecutor Turner said either Andrews or Huffman would be tried next.

It had been whispered around yesterday that the Deigle decision was likely to come today and the room was packed when court opened this morning.

After the verdict Charles D. Belcher, leading c ounsel for Deigle refused to talk. Court officials said that Deigle would be taken to the pen next Tuesday. A mandate will be issued in the lower court to carry the sentence into effect."

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., February 20—Attorney General Hogan has requested the supreme court to take action which will make possible to send Deigle to the pen this evening. The court is considering the action this afternoon. In a conference this afternoon Prosecutor Turner and Attorney General Hogan decided that they would call Senator Andrews' trial in all probability one week from Monday.

Columbus, O., Feb. 20.—Rodney J. Diegle, former sergeant-at-arms of the Ohio senate, goes to the penitentiary for three years, Tuesday morning the Ohio supreme court affirmed his conviction for aiding and abetting bribery.

This holding by the highest court affirms the judgments of the circuit and common pleas courts of Franklin county. It also establishes the competency of dictagraph evidence. This lays down a principle of law never before passed upon.

Diegle was convicted of aiding and abetting Senator L. R. Andrews, of Lawrence county, in soliciting and accepting a bribe of $200 to influence his vote on Senate bill No. 256, an insurance measure. Diegle put up a strenuous fight to escape conviction. In this he had the support of the attorneys employed by the legislators indicted along with him in connection with bribery.

The decision of the supreme court means that all the other legislators who were indicted and who had hoped to escape going before the bar of justice through a reversal of the Diegle conviction by the higher courts, will not be tried. These legislators are: Senators Andrews, of Lawrence county; L. E. Huffman, of Darke county; George K. Cherrington, of Montgomery county; Edward T. Crawford, of Carroll county, and T. A. Dean, of Sandusky county, and Representatives George B. Nye, of Pike county, and A. Clark Lowrey, of Lawrence county.

Representing Attorney Turner and Attorney General Hogan will have these cases without delay, who have been waiting for the supreme court decision before proceeding. Had the decision been otherwise, it is probable that the cases would have been dropped. Without the dictagraph evidence conviction would have been practically impossible. The decision of the court upholding the competency of this kind of evidence will be of importance not only in Ohio, but throughout the nation, establishing, as it does, a precedent and ruling that will be much used. The case in the Diegle case was secured by Dave Burns detective who came to Columbus last April, maintaining headquarters at the Chittenden hotel, where it is alleged to have done his unlawful work, and the indicted legislators say, so it is alleged, received

Lone Bandit Holds Up B. & O. Passenger Brakeman Accused

Cumberland, Md., Feb. 20—Within seven hours after a masked bandit held up B. & O. passenger train No. 4 the New York and St. Louis express, near West Piedmont, W. Va., and relieved a number of passengers of their jewelry and money at the point of a revolver Brakeman F. A. Becker was arrested today and locked up in the Keyser, W. Va., jail charged with the hold-up. The money and jewelry was found on Becker, it is alleged.

Little is known of Becker by B. & O. officials and employes here. His run was from Cumberland to Grafton, W. Va. He was arrested at 40 mile water station by Lieutenant Kenny, of the B. & O. police force.

Among those who reported to the railroad officials that they had "contributed" to the bandit were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McBond of Chillicothe, O., $20.00 and Fred Benz, of Cincinnati, $18.50.

Mr. McBond is division engineer of the B. & O. at Chillicothe.

About $200 in money, four watches, like those stolen from passengers, and two revolvers were found on Becker.

Piedmont, W. Va., Feb. 20.—(Spl.)—While Baltimore & Ohio passenger train No. 1, carrying seven coaches from New York to St. Louis was pulling up the steep 17-mile grade from this city to Cumberland, Md., last night shortly after 10 o'clock, a lone masked bandit jumped from a horse near a clump of bushes just outside of town and boarded the rear sleeper.

Entering the car the man drew two Colt revolvers and firing six shots into the roof of the car terrified the passengers. Holding the conductor, brakeman and porter at bay with one gun the mysterious bandit robbed sixteen passengers of their valuables.

After securing $600 in money and nearly this amount in jewelry, the bandit leaped from the train just as it was pulling into Altamount, and disappeared in the darkness. Just as soon as the train came to a standstill the men in charge rushed to the telegraph office and notified all the surrounding towns. The Cumberland police immediately started work on the case and when a posse was organized started searching the foothills of the Alleghenny mountains for the wanted man.

Posses were also organized here but they were unable to find either the bandit or his horse, which he jumped from when he boarded the train.

GRAND JURY AFTER CASH REGISTER CO.

(By Associated Press.)

Cincinnati, Feb. 20—Rumors that the special United States grand jury which has been in session here for some time was considering the affairs of the National Cash Register Company of Dayton, to ascertain if the company, in the conduct of its business, had violated the Sherman anti-trust laws, gained currency about the federal building today. The grand jury is expected to finish its labors and to make a report not later than Thursday of this week.

Recently the government instituted a civil suit against the cash register company and 28 of its officials for a dissolution, owing to alleged violations of the trust laws. Much of the testimony that had been gathered by the government in this suit was turned over to the special grand jury for its consideration. Judge Hollister, in his charge to the jury, laid special emphasis upon the trust statutes, this being his only specific charge.

THEATRICAL MEN WERE INDICTED

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Feb. 20—Four indictments for alleged rebating were returned by the federal grand jury here, three railroad companies, two theatrical companies and two individuals being involved. Excessive payments for advertising in return for large purchases of railroad tickets, was declared to be the medium for the rebating.

Those indicted were:

Harry J. Rhein, general passenger agent of the Michigan Central railroad.

Rudolph K. Hynicka, of Cincinnati, director of the Columbia Theatrical Amusement Co., of New York.

William M. Underwood, assistant general passenger agent of the Michigan Central.

James E. Fennessey, of Cincinnati, director and secretary of the Empire Circuit Company.

The Columbia Theatrical Company of New York.

The C. C. C. & St. L. Railway Company.

The Michigan Central Railway Company.

The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company.

The Henck Opera House Co., of Cincinnati.

The federal act alleged to have been violated provides a penalty of a fine of not more than $5000 for any corporation found guilty of violating it and a fine of not more than $5,000, or imprisonment of not exceeding two years, or both for any individual found guilty of violation.

Large sums of money are alleged to have been involved in the rebating. It is charged that during the theatrical season of 1909-1910 the railroads paid to Rudolph Hynicka, of Cincinnati, director of the Columbia circuit, $9,292 and in 1910-1911 they paid him $9,677 in rebates on fares.

In 1909-1910 the federal investigators charge that James E. Fennessey received $8,561 from the railroads in rebates.

It is alleged that in the summer of 1909 the officials of the Vanderbilt lines sought the business of the Columbia Theatrical Company and the Empire Theatrical Company which controlled 175 theatrical companies averaging 30 persons each. It is charged that after several conferences an arrangement was entered into by which the railway management agreed to pay to Hynicka and Fennessey, moving spirits in the two theatrical companies, 25 per cent of the fares received for their influence in getting the business for the Vanderbilt lines.

It is charged that Hynicka organized the Cincinnati Railroad Program Company and that he contracted for space in it in Cleveland, Columbus, Detroit, Cincinnati, Columbus and St. Louis at excessive rates. It is asserted that Fennessey acted along similar lines, the allegations in both cases being identical.

He is not expected to say anything bearing directly on his presidential candidacy.

Schiff Stands Firmly By Wife

(By United Press.)

This action followed the opening of the inquiry of Special Commissioner Hand, named by Governor Dix to investigate the circumstances surrounding the sentencing of Faulke E. Brandt, Schiff's former valet to 30 years imprisonment for burglary. As soon as the hearing opened Nicoll jumped to his feet and addressing Hand said:

"We demand that this inquiry be of the broadest character. We want every detail of this shameful story made a part of the record that will be submitted to Governor Dix. Golden Anniversary Is Celebrated Today

Fifty years ago Tuesday, Feb. 20, Capt. A. J. Finney and Miss Lovina W. Wait were married at Wait's Station, this county, by the late Rev. Miranda Searl, of South Webster, and a brother of the late Judge Searl.

During these long years they have traveled the same road, shared the same pleasures, joys and sorrow. True the sun didn't shine every day, but they took the bitter with the sweet and today are hale and hearty and were able to enjoy a splendid dinner today, arranged by their children. It was a complete surprise, but was none the less more enjoyable.

When their children gathered around them Capt. and Mrs. Finney were almost overcome with emotion as they instantly realized what their assemblage meant, it was their golden wedding anniversary and their eyes filled with tears of joy. It was one of the happiest moments in their long and useful life and after an exchange of felicitations, the reading of many postcards and the examination of many pretty remembrances the family sat down to an elegant dinner. The memorable event was fittingly celebrated and some of the more interesting and thrilling incidents of their life were recalled by Capt. Finney and his good wife.

Incidents that marked their early life, when it was a struggle to make both ends meet when they live on a little farm near Powellsville and later between Schultz and Tygart, Kentucky. But their residence in Kentucky was confined to a year. On December the 30th, to be exact in 1882, Capt. and Mrs. Finney came to Portsmouth and have since been listed with the city's most highly honored and esteemed residents. Their pathway was not golden nor rose-strewn all the time, but they plodded and planned and schemed and by good fortune smiling on them they reached a ripe age and have their share of this world's goods. Capt. Finney is a survivor of the Civil War and it is when he is recalling its stirring incidents that he is in his happiest vein. Those seated around the family table today included Capt. and Mrs. Finney and their children as follows: Mrs. Eliza Chabot, Mrs. Mary A. Gustin, Walter Finney and wife, Ora C. Finney and wife, who came from Chicago, and Dr. and Mrs. Clay Finney, of Osgood, Ind.

Fackler Clings To His Records

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Feb. 20.—John D. Fackler chairman of the Ohio Republican League, today refused the demands of R. N. Buck, representing the La Follette headquarters at Chicago that Fackler turn over all records in his possession bearing on the La Follette candidacy in Ohio, including the names of several thousand Republicans pledged to La Follette.

"A continuation of the campaign for La Follette in Ohio can't air anyone except Taft and I shall not be a party to any such arrangement," said Fackler in declining to turn over the records. He further declared La Follette had withdrawn and the records should be used to aid some Progressive Republican.

Lively Scenes At Joplin Convention

(By Associated Press.)

Joplin, Mo., Feb. 20.—In calling the Missouri state Democratic convention together today Chairman Shannon caused a wild demonstration when he mentioned the name of Champ Clark as a candidate for president. There was another demonstration when Shannon declared that Clark could beat Teddy Roosevelt as easily as Roosevelt said the Democrats could beat Taft.

A near riot was precipitated when Shannon declared that St. Louis had had some rotten elections. He did not get to finish what he had to say as P. J. O'Donnell, of St. Louis, leaped to his feet and shouted, "Mr. Chairman, Mr. Chairman, I demand fair play for St. Louis."

"Sit down," shouted back the chairman.

"I won't," shouted back O'Donnell, "you are disgracing St. Louis in the eyes of the rest of the Democrats of the state and I protest against it."

Chairman Shannon appealed to the sergeant-at-arms to make O'Donnell sit down or leave the hall and the delegates began to take sides, hooting and jeering as their sympathies lay with one or the other of the disputants. Police finally restored order and Shannon was enabled to finish his address.

The resolutions will instruct the Missouri delegates to vote for Speaker Clark as long as his name is before the Baltimore convention.

Mr. Goodman stated that he had secured tenants for all but two rooms on the first floor and one on the second floor. The building will be three stories high with a twelve foot basement. He stated that there was no chance whatever for the deal to fall through and predicted that the new building would be ready for occupancy by the last of August.

MR. BRAGDON BUYS REVARE PROPERTY

Through a deal completed Tuesday afternoon the Bragdon Dry Goods Company came into possession of the Peter S. Revare property on Fourth street, located immediately west of the Masonic Temple. The deed transferring the property was signed by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Revare, and turned over to L. W. Bragdon, in the presence of the latter's attorney, Joseph Micklethwait, late Tuesday.

The nine-room residence is to be sold to the highest bidder, according to L. W. Bragdon, of the Bragdon Dry Goods Company.

On the lot, the dimensions of which are 41 by 82, a fine three story pressed brick building with a 12-foot basement is to go up without delay. It will have a beautiful plate glass front, and is to be modern in construction and strictly up-to-date in appearance. The plans have been completed by Architects Devoss and Patterson, and Mr. Bragdon hopes to advertise for bids the latter part of the week. Anticipating no trouble in consummating the deal he instructed his architects three weeks ago to draw the plans. The building has an "L" to it on the west side, as it extends as far back as the Jones lot. Mr. Bragdon, when in his new building, will have three times the floor space he now has in the Masonic Temple, and will have one of the most complete and handsomely appointed dry goods stores in Southern Ohio.

Work on his room in the Masonic Temple is progressing so rapidly that he hopes to be ready for business in certain departments by Saturday. Painters and grainers will work all night to accomplish this end. In fact night crews will work every night until the last trace of the recent big fire is entirely effaced.

LIQUOR FIGHT NOW ON IN THE CONVENTION

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, Feb. 20—The liquor fight in the constitutional convention was started in earnest at the opening of today's session with the advocates of license winning the first contention. The Anderson proposal, which had been made a special order of business ahead of the majority report of the liquor committee, which favored license, was thrown aside and the majority report substituted. There was vigorous objection to this action, many delegates contending that such procedure was out of order. Delegates Anderson and Lampson both declared that it was an outrage upon parliamentary procedure.

Anderson remarked sarcastically that the only person in the convention who seemed to understand the rules was Mr. Doty, of Cuyahoga county and he suggested that the president step down from the chair and give way to Doty.

When President Bigelow refused to rescind his ruling Delegate Winn of Defiance, offered the minority report of the liquor traffic amendment committee as an amendment to King's substitute, forcing the convention to give attention to the Winn proposal first. Winn then took the floor to attack the King proposal. With his speech the lines were drawn for the bitterest fight of the convention. The drys will prolong the fight as long as possible, forcing the wets to go on record against every possible temperance amendment. Winn's proposal limits saloons.

The Anderson proposal which was first on the calendar, was considered the official program of the Anti-Saloon League. The wets claim to control 80 votes.

The labor committee of the convention today approved the proposal backed by the railway trainmen of Ohio authorizing the legislature to extablish a compensation fund for disabled employes to which employers shall contribute. Funds may be established not only in the state but in any of its sub-divisions.

In supporting his substitute Delegate Winn especially appealed to the Democratic members among the delegates. "The greatest shame I ever had as a Democrat" said Winn "was when the Democratic party away back in 1882 was tied to the back end of a brewery wagon and it has ever since been known as the whiskey party." He said he hoped the party by its action now would disprove the charges.

Roosevelt Is Scored By House Witness

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 20.—That former President Roosevelt used American warships to prevent Colombia from suppressing the Panama revolution in 1903 by means of which the United States secured the Panama canal zone was the statement to the house committee on foreign affairs made by Henry N. Hall, a newspaper man, who was in Panama at the time.

Hall appeared in support of the Rainey resolution urging that the Colombian claims be submitted to The Hague tribunal.

"Secretary Hay himself told an American invester in Panama that the revolutionists could depend upon the support of the United States," said Hall who produced affidavits and documentary evidence to support his statements.

"Why does not Secretary Knox want this case to go to The Hague?" asked Representative Gartner.

Hall replied "He does not want to go to the court with an indefensible case in which the judge could make no decision except that the United States owes Colombia the full intrinsic value of the isthmus, conservatively estimated at $100,000,000."

Harmon Talked To Ky. Legislature

(By Associated Press.)

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 20—Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio today warned the Kentucky state legislature and all public office-holders to analyze their own records to see just how much they were responsible for the unrest that, he said, was making a demand for innovations in government general. Governor Harmon spoke briefly at today's session in answer to a recent invitation of the legislature. He said in part:

"Whatever we may think of the innovations in government, we are hearing so much about, it behooves every one who holds a public position to make diligent self-search to find whether any short-coming on his part figures in the unrest which the proposal of these changes signifies. For, while some doubtless advocate them for other reasons, the greater number would not lend an ear without some real or supposed ground for discontent with public agencies as they are.

"And it must be noted that all are involved in the measures in question. Direct legislation is aimed at the law-makers as a body and the recall at the individual members as well as at executive officers and judges. And it may fairly be said that the support these devices receive varies with the real or supposed need of them, as well as with opinions about the balance of advantage in them."

Governor Harmon then recounted two of the administration changes that have been effected since his administration in Ohio began, the substitution of a single board of administration for the 19 state institutions and the adoption of a uniform tax rate.

Closing, he said: "I believe the reform most sorely needed now is in administration, better results at less expense.

"It ought not to cost a billion dollars a year, or over $11 for each man, woman and child in the country to maintain the federal government with its limited functions.

"Those of the state, county and city which are much more numerous and extensive cost together [illegible] little more per head and that is far too much.

"True, there are times of private extravagance, but that is no excuse for public extravagance. Everybody may spend his own money as he pleases, but public officials spend other people's money, much of it contributed under hardship and all of it for purposes which make it sacred for every patriot.

"Federal expenses bear more heavily on the people than state and local expenses because the latter are raised by taxes on property only while the former are chiefly raised by the tariff on articles consumed.

So the per capita figure is not an estimate but a reality, because the poor man with a large family pays more federal tax than the rich man with a smaller family.

"We need other reforms, too, but this would bring quicker, greater and more general relief than any other. And reduction of the tariff taxes, with care and economy in public expenditures, which go hand in hand, are ready means to secure it."

RYAN SAYS IT WAS JOKE

(By Associated Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 20—Firecrackers in the hall and not dynamite explosions under non-union plants and structures was what was meant by the resolution introduced in the national meeting of the Iron Workers' Union at Rochester in September, 1910, to the effect that no explosions should take place while the convention was in session, according to Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers. He said today that a delegate from St. Louis had placed fire crackers under the seats of a number of delegates and set them off just after the convention went into session. Some one then introduced the resolution as a joke, declared Ryan.

In his confession Ortie McManigal said that he had been ordered to have an extra number of explosions just prior to the meeting at Rochester, as it was desired to "leave a good impression upon the convention."

Of the death of Mrs. Harriet Phillips, mother of Walter Phillips, of this city, the Morning Irontonian said:

"The acquaintances of Mrs. Harriet M. Phillips, widow of Col. John Phillips will be grieved to learn that her spirit was claimed Monday evening by the Messenger of Death and that this noble mother, neighbor and friend is no more.

"Her death occurred at Huntington, W. Va., where she went several months ago, for a change, at the home of a Mrs. Thomas with whom she had been staying. "Mrs. Phillips is survived by the following children: Harry of Tampa, Fla., John H. of Huntington, Frank F. of this city and Walter M. of Portsmouth.

State Secretary At The Baptist Church

G. G. Dettwiller, state secretary of the B. Y. P. U., arrived here Monday afternoon from Ironton, and spoke to a good sized congregation Monday night at the First Baptist church.

Mr. Dettwiller compared the work of the Baptist Young People's Union with a game of baseball. "When the batter reaches first base it is a safe start," said Mr. Dettwiller. "The second base represents prayer, and the third bible study. It is on this base that the runner wants to be careful and not 'die,' but make a run for the home plate, which represents activity in Christian life."

Mr. Dettwiller's address enthused the members of the B. Y. P. U., and they will work with renewed interest.

SOME IDEALS IN BACHELOR LINE

A letter to the Bachelor editor says we have failed to mention a few names that several girls are crazy about. The writer says they are her "ideals" and wishes us to add the names to "relieve" ...ty unduly over-estimated anxiety."

Alfred Pittenger, John Knost, John Hast and Ira Lawwill compose the wonderful quartet of "ideals," and the writer gives such a glowing account of each that it would be hard to pick the winner.

Another maid sends in the names of John Ressinger, Edward Evans, Fred Wilcox and Lindsey Thacker.

Still another asks for S. C. Gowdy.

All good, true and well-to-do bachelors.

DOG FACED MEN FOUND

Los Angeles, Feb. 20—Dr. Carl Reaton, African explorer and scientist, arrived here today en route to Washington, where he will lay evidence before the heads of the National Geographical Society that he has discovered men with the faces of dogs and ... living in the heart of the Dark Continent."

"I have proof," declared Dr. ..., "that I have found ... with the faces of dogs, ... spoke in a low gutteral bark ... unlike that of the canine. ... live by ... and their ... of life is not unlike that of ... stone age.

"In another part of Africa, far ... the haunts of white men, I discovered a tribe of negroes who ... about like storks on one leg. ... other leg was never used and they carried it bent or drawn taut. These men live in a section of the country where there are many pools and ponds of water.

"In still another part of Africa there are negroes whose faces are virtually like the beak of a bird. They live in trees."

And the hunting wasn't very good either.

The Country Boy Is A Guaranteed Play

On Friday evening there will be a show at the Grand Opera House, "The Country Boy", which Managers Taylor and Tynes recommend to patrons. It is not a "Rube" show. It is one of the best dramas on the stage. It is a guaranteed attraction.

On Wednesday and Thursday at the Grand another special film Arrah Na Pogue will be shown. This is the same class special as those shown last week, 3000 feet for five cents.

An entirely new treatment of the small town youth in a great city is presented in "The Country Boy," which Henry B. Harris will present at the Grand Friday night.

The hero of the play attributes his lack of success at home to the limitations of the small town. There he has everything to make him happy but he is discontented and unworthy of it all. The originality of Edgar Selwyn's treatment of the theme lies in the fact that the boy goes down to defeat in the city, gets his spunk up and returns home to fight it out and there finds the very things he had sought in the distant metropolis. The story is graphically drawn and the character studies true to life not only with reference to the good country folk but the people found in the purlieus of the "great white way."

RUNNING A STOCK FARM

Will Gray, the congenial street car conductor, is devoting all his spare time to horses and mules. Any one passing through the alley back of Gray's residence on Selby Terrace will find his own stables and all his neighbors lined up with Kentucky thoroughbreds, farm horses, saddle horses, harness horses, some mules, a cow or two. From all appearances William will have to move to a stock farm in the near future.

Give Out Dates For Elks Boat Excursions

The moonlight excursion to be given on the Island Queen by the local Lodge of Elks will take place on Monday April 29, and Friday, May 3, the dates being announced Tuesday by Secretary Clarence Nodler.

Tickets will go on sale in a couple of weeks, and the Elks are already planning to make these excursions the best attended in many years. The Elks will control all the concessions and the River City Band will likely be engaged to furnish the music. The Island Queen is one of the finest boats on the Ohio river, and during the summer months carries thousands of pleasure seekers from Cincinnati to Coney Island.

SEND TO GREENUP FOR GROCERIES

The Greenup Republican cheerfully says:

"That Greenup is about as cheap a place on earth to live was in evidence this week when some of our merchants made shipments of groceries to West Virginia and Portsmouth. Not only these two shipments, but two cases of eggs were shipped to former Greenup residents in Washington, D. C.

"These people claim they can purchase the groceries here, pay freight charges and still get them cheaper than where they live.

"No doubt Greenup is the cheapest place in the states to live."

AIN'T WE AWFUL, FIVE DANCES IN ONE NIGHT!

One night it is the moving picture craze in Portsmouth and the next the old town capitulates to dancing.

There were five dances in the city Monday night, every musician available being pressed into service. It is estimated that there were over 200 couples dancing in the various halls in the city.

There were over 35 couples at the High school dance in Scot's hall. The Harn Girls entertained with an old-time masquerade dance, there was a big dance in the Auditorium rink and there was a dance in Richardson's and Kendall's hall, which were unusually well attended. A dance was also held in the East End.

Despite the rainy weather, the streets were dotted with musicians and young people on their way to the respective dances Monday night. Some giddy old town, this River City.

If This Medicine Does not Satisfactorily Benefit You

Practicing physicians making a specialty of stomach troubles are really responsible for the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made. We have simply profited by the experience of experts.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be an excellent remedy for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time helps to bring about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets aid to insure healthy appetite and digestion, and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain them only at our store—The Rexall Store. Wurster Bros., 419 Chillicothe street.

FACE BROKEN OUT?

PIMPLES REPLACED BY SMOOTH, CLEAR SKIN.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk

Mothers often find it necessary to wrap cloths around children's hands to prevent them from scratching the face raw when they have eczema or some other itching eruption.

Now that we are ready to supply our new remedy, Saxon Salve, which allays the itching in a few moments, this is easily avoided.

The first application, even where the skin is broken out and scratched raw, will bring comfort. And the healing power of Saxon Salve is so great, and the remedy permeates and saturates the skin so thoroughly, that it is only a short time until the eruption has vanished and the skin is left smooth, clear and well.

We guarantee Saxon Salve to satisfy you—money back if it does not. Try it for any recent or chronic skin trouble of children or adults.—Frank Amann, Druggist.

DR. RARDIN HAD FINE TALK

To a class of fifty men Dr. Jos. S. Rardin gave his second of a series of lectures Monday night at the railroad Y. M. C. A. Dr. Rardin will deliver several more lectures on the "First Aid to the Injured."

His subject Monday night was "The Application of Bandages," which proved of value to the railroad men who are often in accidents. Many of them asked Dr. Rardin numerous questions.

To Address Jr. O. U. A. M.

Chaplain Charles Mumney of the Second Ohio U. S. Regiment will deliver an address at the open meeting of the J. O. U. A. M. which will be held Friday evening at their hall in the I. O. O. F. building. Several prominent local speakers will make short addresses, among them Rev. J. W. Dunning, of the First Presbyterian church.

COAL TRAFFIC IS HEAVY

Ten substitute brakemen on the Kenova division of the N. & W. were laid off Monday, as many of the regulars returned to their runs.

Simultaneously with the laying off of the "brakies," six additional firemen were put to work at the local Terminals.

Coal shipments continue very heavy. A triple header passed through the city Monday night with what was probably the longest coal train that ever left the coal fields. There were 103 loaded coal cars in the train, and the three engines made as much noise as a battleship. Most of the cars were gondolas, and it is estimated that the train was pulling over 10,000 tons of black diamonds.

BASTILE IS CROWDED

There were exactly 23 prisoners for breakfast at the city bastile Tuesday morning, most of them hold-overs from Saturday night's round-up, while nine of the number were hoboes who had come in for lodging.

Are Making Full Time

Employes in the cutting room of the Excelsior Shoe Company went on full time Tuesday after working nine hours for several weeks. Other departments are working ten hours every day.

Platform Dance Held

An old fashioned platform dance was given Monday night on Upper Twin Creek, on the West Side, and it was attended by the largest crowd that ever went to a West Side dance, there being over forty couples in attendance. The music was furnished by C. H. Green and Stockham brothers. The best of order was maintained by the committee.

Install Heating System.

A new heating system, one that will meet the demands of the severest kind of wintry weather, is being installed at the N. & W. Y. M. C. A., the work having been commenced Monday. The old plant broke down two weeks ago. The ideal steam system is being installed.

Will Be Key Pounder.

George Schroeder, Jr., formerly with the Postal Company, is now assisting the Western Union Telegraph Company's local force. George has been practicing telegraphy for some time past, and soon hopes to be a full-fledged operator.

Blacksmith Is Out Again

W. L. Saift, the Wheelersburg blacksmith, who was kicked in the stomach about a month ago by a mule which he was shoeing, is able to be out again and has resumed his duties.

Throat Was Lanced

Miss Marie Hunter, a young High school student, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunter, is suffering with a severe attack of quinsy and had to have her throat lanced Monday.

Bride Was Missing

Alva Hayes, a prominent native of the Scioto shore town, returned Monday from a trip to the west in search, and to the disappointment of fellow conductors, failed to bring a bride, as generally anticipated.

Financial Campaign Now On In Earnest

The financial battle to be waged by the men of the First Christian church can now be said to be on in earnest. At the preliminary meeting held on Monday evening, F. W. Sheridan and Louis F. Lemon were elected as generals in the fray, and ere the large body of men knew what was coming off they had been enlisted on one side or the other. Sheridan chose for his captains Messrs. John Ault and Fred Valliard, while General Lemon commissioned Nate B. Crabtree and Wm. C. Yenger as his aides or captains.

The first real engagement will take place this evening, between the hours of 6 and 8:30 o'clock, when the canvass will begin. Each member of the four companies has been given the names and addresses of those members of the church who have not as yet pledged any definite amount toward the current expenses of the church. They will be solicited to do something along this line. At the same time it is hoped to secure a correct list of the entire church membership, so that an authentic membership list can be published.

The various companies will report to their respective generals at 8:30. A large wooden clock has been made and it is hoped to shove the financial hand around to the $8,000.00 mark before the canvass is brought to a close. It is now at the $1,500.00 mark, that much having been pledged toward the current expenses. Following the organization, the ladies of Section No. 1 furnished light refreshments. After the reports each evening this week, the various sections will serve a good warm supper.

Watch the big clock, ye Lemonites!

BRIDGES FOR GREENUP CO.

It was stated officially Tuesday that three structural iron bridges would be built in Greenup county, Kentucky, this spring. One will go up at Bushy Fork, another at Laurel on Sandy, and the third will be erected at East Fork. They will be built along substantial lines and have been needed for some time.

Try This Experiment On Your Family

Serve Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH instead of coffee for breakfast without calling anyone's attention to it.

Be sure that Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is made according to directions. Like coffee, you can spoil it. But Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is just as easy to prepare as coffee. See whether anybody notices the difference—or if your family thinks it is coffee, whether it is better than usual. Many who used to be coffee fiends, say they now prefer Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH for its delightful flavor of the finest coffee.

Fitch's Grains of Health

The Coffee Substitute With the Coffee Taste

Here is another interesting experiment:

Pour Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH into one cup, and the drinker's favorite brand of coffee into another.

Trim them exactly alike, and ask the drinker to tell which is which.

He may make a good guess, but it will be only a guess.

Smells Like Good Coffee Tastes Like Good Coffee

Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH has been substituted for coffee in many families and confirmed drinkers have not known the change. Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH smells like good coffee, tastes like good coffee, but has not one of coffee's bad effects. Caffeine, the part of coffee which causes the headaches and nervousness, has been counteracted in Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH.

Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is a simple combination of a special high-grade blend of coffee with herbs, roots and vegetables, which make it a positive health benefit.

Drink all the Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH you want. The more the better.

You can serve Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH to the children. It is good for them. No intelligent adviser would ever tell you to serve coffee to children.

Recommended by Physicians

You can serve Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH to the sick. We have testimonials from doctors who use Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH and recommend it.

But don't think we offer you Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH on its remedial merits alone. It is a substitute for coffee for all coffee drinkers. It has the aroma, it has the taste, it has the revivifying effect. It has all the attractions of the real thing, and it's healthified.

Ask Your Grocer

Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is sold by all leading grocers. The price is 25 cents the pound. It is ground, ready for use. It is just as easy to prepare as coffee; but only half as much of Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is required as coffee—a teaspoonful to a cup. Therefore it really costs only half as much as good coffee.

If your grocer cannot supply you, write us, mentioning his name, and we will send you a generous sample package of Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH (enough to serve a large family at breakfast) and a booklet telling you all about Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH. Enclose 6 cents in stamps for postage.

CONFIDENTIAL LOANS

THERE is not a man or woman in this city who would borrow a dollar from any other company if they knew and realized how this institution is conducted; how fair, conservative and liberal its policy is; a policy that for twenty years has conformed to the wishes and needs of thousands of people, who today are counted the best asset of this company. It is this policy that has paved the way for our success. It is this policy that has won over the combined and crushing opposition of all competitors. They, themselves cannot say a word against it, because our policy is right and legitimate.

SALVATION ARMY MAN COMPLAINS TO POLICE

Mr. Philipsson of the Salvation Army, called on Chief Philipps Tuesday afternoon and protested against annoyances that Mrs. Frank Denning was being subjected to by her husband's relatives. These, he said, were trying every means of having her leave the army and come back to them. Denning himself has not been seen or heard from since the day he disappeared from Ensign Philipsson's home some weeks ago. Police suspected him of taking some of the army's funds and made a search for him but without success.

SAVED BABY FROM BEING CRUSHED

If little Frank Joseph, Jr., 15-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joseph, lives to become a great and good man, he can thank his mother, for, without doubt, she saved him from death. Tuesday afternoon at the corner of Sixth and Chillicothe streets.

Mrs. Joseph was taking her boy a ride in his go-cart, and had stopped to admire the flowers at the Thomas Floral Co., when a 20-foot ladder, which was leaning against the cross-bars of the Majestic sign, crashed to death.

Fell with crashing force. Mrs. Joseph happened to be looking up just as the ladder started to fall. She jerked the go-cart back two feet and the ladder just grazed the head of the little boy. By-standers came to her assistance and carried the lady into the floral company's store. Once inside Mrs. Joseph became near fainting. She revived shortly, thankful, indeed, that she had kept her presence of mind and thus saved her baby from being crushed to death.

Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy

Costs Little, But Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a deep seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, croup, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasantly.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been equaled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A STRIKING EVENING GOWN.

For evening wear, there is no question that violent colors are increasing in favor, these adding not a little to the general barbaric impression that prevails. The gown illustrated is in a brilliant shade of the made over rose red. The bodice has a beautiful fichu of silver lace, which finishes in a huge butterfly in front outlined with pearls.

This and other combinations are replete with daring. In the case of a vivid red brocade, sprinkling between a scallywag shade and a beguile pink, the fabric of the most simple quality, there was arranged one of the deep Egyptian sashes of purple mousseline de soie, wrought with fine gold embroidery, the ends fringed heavily with gold.

NO FALLING HAIR OR DANDRUFF AFTER THIS

Your hair looks soft, fluffy, lustrous and abundant after a Danderine hair cleanse

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful druggists, chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Dr. Edward Amherst Ott will close the Bigelow Lecture Course Thursday night. His subject will be "Sour Grapes." Lenten Devotions.

Instead of the regular prayer meeting, special preaching and Lenten services will be held at the German Evangelical church Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. These special services will be held every Wednesday evening until Easter Sunday.

THEATRICAL

At The Sun

Headed by Ajedale's circus act, which is a scream from start to finish, the new bill at the Sun theatre is a corker. If you have a shiny dime that isn't working step around to the theatre and see the new bill.

Ajedale has a bunch of bears, monkeys and dogs that do everything even to loving each other and waltzing together and two-stepping. The act is fine. A treat for the little folks. Then there is Roy and Wilson, clever singers with a nicely staged act; George Smedley, a splendid musician, who is an orchestra in himself, and Mildred Scott, who sings, just a wee tiny bit and tells some good stories.

TYNES AGAIN HAS BIG POLICE COURT

Charles Whittaker, the mill man, who had a run-in with Noah Bender, a street car conductor, Saturday night, was found guilty of disorderly conduct by Mayor Tynes Tuesday morning.

Whittaker was fined $10 and costs but the fine was remitted and he will have only the costs to pay. A plain case was made against Whittaker and his offense was shown to have been of such a grave nature that the mayor himself at the outset declared he would be justified in binding him over to the grand jury but he preferred straightening out matters in his own court if possible and besides it appeared to him that it was only a plain case of Whittaker having lost his head.

Samuel Crawford, Jerry Hatfield and Oscar Rickey, all gave damaging testimony against Whittaker. The former had been passing as the trouble occurred. He saw Whittaker drop his child to the street and advance towards Bender. Hatfield testified he saw an open knife in Whittaker's hand and heard him make an ugly threat to disembowel the conductor at the same time cursing him. All he had heard Bender say in return was his advice to Whittaker to step over to the company's office and make his complaint.

Mr. Rickey said that when Whittaker got aboard the car the passengers seemed to be pressed towards the rear end. There was plenty of standing room ahead and the conductor made repeated requests for passengers to move forward. He said there was some discord among them but he had been on many a car worse crowded than that one was. After Whittaker alighted he stood his child in the street and made for Bender. The child had fallen and was screaming. Rickey said he was not over six feet from the man and plainly saw a small knife blade projecting from his hand. Bender had alighted but quickly jumped back on the platform step.

The only witness examined in Whittaker's behalf was his wife but it did not bear directly upon the actual assault. Whittaker himself denied having had a knife, claiming he had a key instead. The court assuming that he did not have a knife told him the key or whatever shining object he might have had would produce the same effect upon the person threatened. Whittaker admitted that but said he did not realize it at the time and now regretted all.

Sam Johnson, a giant negro, proved a stubborn customer. He was accused of discharging firearms. His pistol, identified by him, and six empty shells were introduced as evidence against him. Sam vigorously denied that he had shot the pistol and denied having told arresting officers on Saturday night that he always kept the gun in a trunk instead of saying he always had it concealed in or about his bed.

Mariah Spaulding was sworn and told of Johnson having come to her home Saturday evening and inviting her to take a walk. She refused and he quit the house going out the front door and around the side of the house when suddenly five pistol shots rang out. She did not go out to investigate but her brother, Charles Spaulding did. Upon his return he did not say who had done the shooting. McKinley Hurd corroborated her statement. Neither thought Johnson had been drinking. They gave the names of others who were within the house which adjoins that of Johnson and the case was continued until Wednesday when they will be summoned to appear. Mayor Tynes advised Johnson for the last time to make a 'clean breast' of it and tell the truth but he insisted he had done so and was led back to his cell.

Lawrence Sesher denied ever having any intentions of beating a board bill. Mrs. Mary Stephan of Clay street, appeared against him. She related how she had cared for him during illness and though he had been boarding at her home since December 26 had received only about three small payments all told and he still owed her $11.28. He disappeared Saturday noon going to Ironton and she had seen no more of him. Sesher claimed he had not been able to do better simply because he had been out of work much of the time. He had gone to Ironton Saturday after $15 which a brother owed him but which he failed to get. The one suspicious circumstance against him was that he had not returned to the Stephan home Sunday or Monday. The law was read to him but inasmuch as Mrs. Stephan merely demanded her money and was not disposed to further prosecute him the mayor decided to pass up the charge provided Sesher settles the bill and thit he is now trying to do.

Robert Harmon, a colored N. & W. terminal employe, arrested Monday night for thumping his wife following a quarrel at their home on Thirteenth street, was released on $50 bond. He will be given a hearing Wednesday.

George Lumley, a Brewery Hollow resident, was arrested Tuesday morning on complaint of his wife, who said he refuses to work and is altogether worthless. She herself is forced to earn a livelihood by working in a shoe factory. Lumley refused to report at police headquarters when ordered and the patrol went after him. He was just crawling out of bed when the officers reached his home.

Ike Clark, a North End citizen, arrested for loitering Monday night, was about to be dismissed early Tuesday when a woman claiming to be his wife registered complaint against him. She said he was not providing for her and wanted him severely dealt with. She said Clark was once sent to the pen from Ironton for stealing. He will be given a hearing Wednesday.

Mathew Thompson of Rushtown, said he had come to town Saturday on business expecting to remain over Sunday. On Monday he met a relative from Kentucky who invited him to share with him a bottle of whiskey and it must have contained something. The mayor informed him all whiskey contains something. Some brands make one happy, others make you cry but in this instance it caused Thompson to get the lying down habit. He was let off with $1 and costs and a warning not to come back again.

Woman Finally Recovers From Nervous Breakdown

Impoverished nerves destroy many people before their time. Often before a sufferer realizes what the trouble is, he is on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown. It is of the utmost importance to keep your nervous system in good condition, as the nerves are the source of all bodily power. Mrs. Anna Kounz, 211 Mechanic St., Pueblo, Colo., says:

"For many years I suffered from nervous prostration; I was unable to do any house work and doctors failed to help me. Remedies I tried from druggists did not do me a particle of good. A neighbor told my husband about and he procured a bottle. After the first few doses I showed a marked improvement and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I have been perfectly well for years and cannot praise Dr. Miles' Nervine too highly."

If you are troubled with loss of appetite, poor digestion, weakness, inability to sleep; if you are in a general run down condition and unable to bear your part of the daily grind of life, you need something to strengthen your nerves. You may not realize what is the matter with you, but that is no reason why you should delay treatment.

has proven its value in nervous disorders for thirty years, and merits a trial, no matter how many other remedies have failed to help you.

Sold by all druggists. If first bottle fails to benefit your money is returned. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

OFFICERS HERE SO RUDE

Officers Rome Arthurs and Clark paid a visit to the home of Mrs. Ora Lotell in the North End this morning and rudely interrupted a seance that Mrs. Lotell, Mrs. Georgia Kuntzelman and Mr. Pap Steppe were enjoying. "Rushing the Can" was said to have been a part of the entertainment. The officers gave the trio a curtain lecture, sent Georgia and Pap home and told them that if they knew what was good for them they would stay there.

Roll Broken At the Mill

A roll worth $500 was broken Monday night on the new 60-inch mill at the plant of the Portsmouth Steel Company, and work had to be suspended for the night. A new roll was placed in position today and the mill resumed operations.

Owls Had Meeting

The Owls had a rousing meeting Monday night at which final arrangements were made for the dance to be given tonight at Kendall's hall in honor of Fastnacht which is expected to be one of the biggest events of the kind of the season. There was a big turnout at the meeting and the members listened to an interesting address made by Mr. M. M. Shea, national organizer, who is here carrying on a campaign with fine success of adding recruits to the roster of the local Nest.

A special session will be held the latter part of this week for the purpose of initiating a class of 100 candidates which will be the work of recruiting a big class to be taken in on March 17, St. Patrick's Day, when the campaign will come to a close.

Notice To Bereans

The Loyal Bereans, one of the adult classes at the First Christian church Sunday school, who were to meet at the home of a member, Mrs. F. W. Sheridan, next Thursday evening, have postponed the meeting for one week, owing to the financial campaign that has been arranged for by the male members of the church this week. All members of the Bereans will kindly take notice of the postponement.

STONE COMPANY DESTROYED

It was learned in the city Tuesday that the plant of the Bedford Stone Company, which has furnished all the stone for the new First National Bank building, at Gallia and Chillicothe streets, was completely destroyed by fire a few days ago. The plant, which is one of the largest of its kind in the world, is located at Bedford, Ind. Fortunately, practically all the stone for the bank building had been gotten out before the fire. Other plants located at Bedford will complete what little of the contract was left, and work on the building will not be interfered with.

Laying Stone High In Air

The Roche-Bruner Company's forces Tuesday began setting the stone facings for the two top stories of the new First National bank building. The work is rather perilous and all day crowds watched the men at work.

A Permanent Cure For Chronic Constipation

Although those may dispute it who have not tried it, yet thousands of others, who speak from personal experience, assert that there is a permanent cure for chronic constipation. Some testify they were cured for as little as fifty cents, years ago, and that the trouble never came back on them, while others admit they took several bottles before a steady cure was brought about.

The remedy referred to is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been on the market for over a quarter of a century and has been popularized on its merits, by one person telling another. The fact that its strongest supporters are women and elderly people—the ones most persistently constipated—makes it certain that the claims regarding it as a permanent cure for constipation have not been exaggerated.

It is not violent like cathartic pills, salts or waters, but operates gently, without griping and without shock to the system. It contains tonic properties that strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles so that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with and nature is again solely relied on. Among the legions who testify to these facts are Mr. Z. L. Smith, Steubenville, Ohio, and Mrs. Grant W. T. Wilson, 1238 Wesley Ave., Columbus, Ohio, and they always have a bottle of it in the house, for it is a reliable laxative for all the family from infancy to old age.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 465 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

YOUR KIDNEYS NEED CLEANING.

Every Person, Healthy or Unhealthy, ought to Give the Kidneys a Thorough Cleaning Right Now.

You clean your teeth daily. You wouldn't think of doing otherwise and yet the teeth are not one-tenth so important to health, strength and a long life as the kidneys.

Do you know that the kidneys are little strainers or fine sieves, through which every drop of blood in the body passes again and again?

And when the kidneys become clogged they are unable to strain the impure matter from the blood, and it stays in the blood and causes disease in various parts of the body. Take rheumatism, for instance, this terrible disease is caused by uric acid in the blood, and uric acid gets into the blood only when the kidneys are clogged up and are unable to properly strain the impurities.

Just go to The Pure Drug Co. today and get a bottle of Thompson's Barosma, the most scientific kidney, liver and bladder regulator the world has ever known, take it regularly for two weeks, and all the impure matter in your kidneys will pass out through the bladder, and your kidneys will be as pure and clean and healthy as any kidneys can be.

Thompson's Barosma is guaranteed by The Pure Drug Co. to cure all diseases of the kidneys, liver and bladder, or money back. It is a wonderful tonic and blood purifier and will bring the glow of health to the cheeks of the sick in a short time. 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

Demonstrated New Fire Alarm Scheme

O. P. Crocker, a traveling representative of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Company, of Newton Falls, Mass., spent Tuesday here trying to interest city officials in purchasing a new fire alarm system for Portsmouth.

Mr. Crocker gave a practical demonstration of his firm's latest improved boxes at the office of Safety Director Wells A. Hutchins.

Mayor Tynes, Fire Chief Hancock and others were present and all were impressed with the advantages and improvements the new boxes possess over the old ones still in use here. They are non-interfering and have many other important features gained from 51 years of experience in the manufacturing of fire alarm systems. The standard Gamewell box costs $125, while another kind that is also very satisfactory costs $75.

Mr. Crocker is said to have made a proposition to the officials on 70 boxes and it is likely some recommendation will be made to city council at Wednesday night's meeting.

Are You Blue and Worried?

Nervous? Some of the time really ill? Catch cold easily and frequently suffer from biliousness or headache? The reason is that your system does not rid itself of the poisons in the blood; just as impossible as it is for the grate of a stove to rid itself of clinkers. The waste does to us exactly what the clinkers do to the stove; make the fires burn low until enough clinkers have accumulated and then prevent its burning at all. Your liver is sluggish—you are dull and heavy—sleep does not rest, nor is food appetizing. In this condition illness develops. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery eradicates the poisons from the body—a glyceric alterative extract made from bloodroot, golden seal and mandrake root, stone and queen's root, without the use of alcohol. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to be "out of kilter" at times; in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood.

MRS. BLAKE.

MRS. BLAKE, of Port Dover, Ont., Box 96, writes: "I have been a great sufferer for years from thyroid trouble, catarrh, indigestion, female troubles, bloating, constipation and nervousness—at times I would be in bed, then able to be up again. Was under many different doctors, and paid out lots of money for a little while, then I would go down with chronic inflammation all through me. For nineteen years I had this poison in my blood. After trying nearly everything I got worse. I saw in The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. I have taken the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and have used five bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. I am now able to do my work and walk with pleasure. I feel like a new woman. I only wish everybody knew me and Dixie God for letting me live long enough to find something that made me well again."

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia.

I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

LOVE LORN SWAINS FIGHT FOR MAIDEN

Rival lovers for the heart and hand of the same golden-haired lassie, Harry Weeks and Paul Kitchen, local shoeworkers, met by appointment Monday night, so the story goes, and fought it out. The winner was to get Lillian's good right mitt.

Well, beneath the rays of an arc lamp on East Sixth street, the love-sick Romeos clashed. After a pretty strenuous scrap, in which only nature's weapons were used, Weeks was declared the winner. Both boys had "busted" lips, discolored eyes and puffed cheeks, but they settled the much mooted question, not peaceably, but effectively.

Kitchen admitted his opponent's fistic superiority and agreed to keep away from Lillian.

According to Weeks, Mr. Kitchen has been a thorn in his path to loveland. "Only a few intimate friends" witnessed the setto. Flowers were omitted.

In shoe factory circles the incident was talked of freely Tuesday, as the parties are all well known.

New Boston Council After Telephone Co.

That a fight against the Home Telephone Company is breaking at New Boston is evident from expressions made by various solons at Monday night's meeting of the village council.

It seems that the council was seeking to have a free telephone installed in the village marshal's office and a committee recently waited upon President W. R. Fee of the company. Mr. Fee, the committee reported, informed them that the franchise his company had did not require him to put in another telephone besides the one in the mayor's office and under the law the company did not have to install any for that matter.

The question was finally referred to Solicitor Robert C. Meyers and he made his report Monday evening. It developed a strange situation.

Mr. Myers found that the village had granted a franchise which bore the signature of then Mayor Kent and the clerk of council. This franchise is on the village records. The telephone company however produced a copy of a franchise bearing the signature of Capt. James Skelton, president pro tem of the council and its clerk, which specified that the company shall furnish the village with a telephone free of charge.

Mr. Myers held that the franchise on the records was undoubtedly the one to be regarded as legally original but found that Mr. Fee was in the right in so far as the laws did not require him to give the village any telephone unless so disposed.

Council was quick to voice its displeasure over the stand taken by the telephone company and strong hints were indulged in that there was a way of evening up matters. Among others it was suggested that council require the company to place all of its wires under ground a section of the franchise reserving this right for council. It can either force the company to place its wires 25 feet above the ground or as many feet below. No definite action was taken but interesting developments are likely to follow in the near future.

The urgent need of a new village office was strongly advocated at the meeting. It was pointed out that the present office is in a dilapidated condition and there is no fit place for keeping the village records. While all agreed that a new building was needed action was postponed for the present.

A report was made to council that the gas company was ready and willing to begin work digging trenches needed for connections in installing new lamps in the eastern part of the village as soon as the weather becomes more favorable. The required number of lights has already been purchased by the village.

Mayor Stewart told of the necessity of a bridge across the alley between Monroe and Taft streets. Other needed improvements were discussed informally but no action taken.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. Girl Sends Thanks To Rescue Workers

Mrs. Grafton Johnson, well-known rescue worker, Monday was pleased to receive a letter from Olga Hettich, the 14-year-old Cleveland girl who recently ran away from home, apprehended here and sent back home.

The letter was an unusually interesting and well composed one, and among other things expressed the young writer's heartfelt thanks for the interest Mrs. Johnson had taken in her while she was entrusted to her keeping.

Investigation has shown that there was nothing back of the girl's flight, as was suspected by the police. She is a violinist of much ability and of an ambitious turn of mind and thought to start out in the world and try her hand at earning her own livelihood.

Please cut out and preserve this list for reference. A card containing these particulars can be obtained on application at the church.

The church is located at the corner of Fourth and Court streets, and a cordial invitation is hereby extended to everyone to attend all of these services. The self-sacrifice which the visiting clergy make in adding to their already heavy Lenten labors, by coming here to bring up a Lenten message, demands that we show our appreciation by giving them large congregations to bid them welcome.

Your duty only begins to be discharged when you bring yourself to church. You ought to bring your neighbor, too. See how many you can bring within the hearing of the Gospel this Lent.

MRS. GREATON'S AWFUL EXPERIENCE

During Change of Life—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it has worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. MARION SWEET GREATON, No. 1 Jefferson St., Natick, Mass.

DON'T INVITE SICKNESS

Thin Blood Is a Standing Invitation to Every Disease That Is Prevalent.

Thin, impure blood is an invitation to sickness. The blood is at work, day and night, to maintain the health and any lack of strength or purity in the blood is a weakness in the defense against disease. Anaemia is the doctor's name for lack of blood. There may be an actual loss in the quantity of the blood or one or more of its constituents may be lacking. Its most symptom is pallor. Anaemia is particularly common in young girls from 14 to 17 years of age. It is not confined to them for it is this same lack of blood that prevents full recovery after the grip, fevers, malaria and operations and is present in old age and in persons who have been under an unusual physical or mental strain.

If you are suffering from anaemia you can profit by the experience of Mrs. H. J. Albertzart, of No. 3214 Glendora avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio, who says: "I was in a terrible condition, all run down, nervous and hysterical some years ago. I had no appetite and was troubled with gas on the stomach. I was almost a skeleton and weighed only 100 pounds. I had no desire to live. I couldn't sleep well, was pale and sallow and there was no color in my lips at all. There seemed to be a pressure on the top of my head. I had palpitation of the heart and was short of breath on going up stairs or upon the least exertion. I doctored incessantly and was told that I lacked blood. The doctor gave me tonic after tonic and advised me to take plenty of exercise and fresh air. He finally said he could do nothing for me. I felt very much discouraged. One day I came across a pamphlet in which I learned about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. After taking four boxes I felt much better, in fact like a new person. I felt cheerful and happy. I began to take on flesh. I took twelve boxes and the change in me was something marvelous. I looked the picture of health. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the grandest medicine for a general breakdown of the system."

Send for free booklet, "Diseases of the Blood."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Fine Reception By Magnolia Lodge K.P.

The reception held Monday night by Magnolia Lodge K. of P. was enjoyed by over 100 couples and it was unanimously voted one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held by a local Pythian lodge, there being over 125 couples in attendance. The music was furnished by Prof. Arthur Bode's Orchestra and the delicious supper was faultlessly served by Caterer Jacob Pfau. There were six courses, and the banquet table, which encircled the entire hall, looked very inviting with its white linen, silverware and floral decorations. The Pythians never do anything by halves and the reception last night was an ideal success, respite the inclemency of the weather.

The following program was rendered:

Music—Orchestra.
Reading—Miss Catherine Mueller
Song—Miss Bertha Staiger.
Barnyard Impersonations—Harry Porter.
Ledgerdemain—Virgil Jones.

The committee which looked after the details of the successful affair so faithfully included Lee Brehmer, George Swabby and Stephen Holman.

FEDERAL TAX RETURNS DUE BY MARCH FIRST

Division Revenue Collector H. A. McKenzie, of Waverly, was in the city today on official business pertaining to reports of corporations which are required to file annual reports under the federal tax laws.

In a conversation with a Times reporter at the Washington hotel, Mr. McKenzie stated that the revenue department had been placed at much expense and extra labor in securing reports from corporations, and the assessments of penalties were numerous for failure to file reports or delinquency in filing same within the time limit prescribed by the statutes.

Returns of annual net income for the calendar year 1911 are required to be made to collectors of internal revenue on or before March 1, 1912. Corporations whose net income does not exceed $5,000.00, as well as those whose net income exceeds that amount, are required to make this return.

Corporations who fail to file their reports within the prescribed time, March 1, become liable to a specific penalty of from $1,000.00 to $10,000.00 and failures to file the return in case a tax is due subjects the company also to an additional assessment of 50 per cent.

Corporations which have not received the blank forms should write immediately to Collector W. O. Bowland, Columbus, Ohio, for the same and fill out, and verify and file the same without delay. The government is under no obligation, however, to furnish blanks, but does so only as a matter of courtesy and convenience. Failure to receive blanks will not be regarded as ground for relief from the penalties incurred.

Several corporations in Portsmouth and Ironton were compelled to pay penalties last year, and nearly all of the cases of delinquency were the result of ignorance, inadvertance or neglect.

FORTUNE DREAM COMES TRUE

Sandusky, O., Feb. 20— Mrs. Elizabeth Motry, sixty-five years old, who for the past few years has been trying her best to support herself, has come into unexpected wealth.

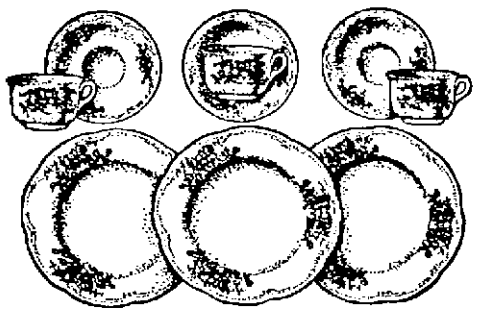

Last night she dreamed that her husband, an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, had buried some money in a pig pen at the rear of the house.

Arising from her bed, she armed herself with a spade and, like the famous Captain Kidd, went in search of the treasure. Her first effort proved successful. Turning over a board she found a baking powder can filled with twenty-dollar gold pieces and certificates of deposit. The find will prove more than sufficient to keep Mrs. Motry in comfort for the rest of her life.

Claims Wife Won't Let Him See Child

John Cattee, of Pond Creek, laid in a complaint to Judge Blair, Monday, that his former wife, Sylvia Zeadle-Cattee and her relatives refuse to allow him to see his child weekly, as directed by the court. The wife was granted a divorce some months ago and given custody of their young child. Cattee being ordered to pay $2.50 towards its support and he to have the privilege of spending each Sunday afternoon with the child. Cattee claims he has been denied this privilege for five months and declares he fears bodily harm should he persist, as she and others have made threats. Cattee demanded they be cited for contempt, but the court declined to take that drastic action until he can hear the other side of the trouble. The father appeared to be greatly broken up over the continued separation from his child.

Carmi And Lucien J. Out For Delegates

Writing of Tenth district politics, J. W. Faulkner had the following in Monday's Cincinnati Enquirer:

"A man that came up from Ironton yesterday to be measured for a suit of Sunday clothes says that the people down that way are talking a good deal about Carmi A. Thompson, assistant secretary of the interior, as a candidate for delegate to the Republican national convention from the Tenth district. It is understood that Mr. Thompson will be for Taft for president, and don't make any mistake about what understood means in this connection. As a frame-up is constructed, the other delegate will be former Congressman Lucius Junius Fenton, of Winchester, Adams county. Lucius was foreman of the grand jury that indicted all the vote-sellers last year. Mr. Thompson has taken out his famous lucky stone, which has a rabbit's foot beaten on Irish style, and hopes to land without much opposition."

MACHINERY IS ADDED

Greenup, Ky., Feb. 20.—The Greenup Milling Company has installed a new model crusher and meal mill in the lower mill, and to say that that thing is a buzz saw is putting it in a mild manner. The crusher roller makes 3,000 revolutions a minute, and a person cannot put his hand in the meal as it comes from the mill, it being fanned out with such a force that the meal in striking your hand seems as though a thousand needles were piercing it.

Chillicothe, O., Feb. 20. In view of the fact that Teddy won't come to see them, the Roosevelt boosters have decided to go to Columbus on Wednesday and see him.

Alleged Forger Had Been In Portsmouth

Ironton, O., Feb. 20.—Chief King made what may have been a very important capture when he arrested a man Monday morning who gives his name as Charles Williams, and his residence as Morehead, Ky. Chief King heard of the efforts of the man Williams to pass certain checks at saloons in the city, and he arrested his man Monday morning shortly after he had received word of the actions of the fellow, the arrest being made at the corner of Second and Center streets.

According to his own story, Williams claims that he is married, has two children and that he left his home in Kentucky and came to Portsmouth Saturday to see his sick mother. He then hopped a freight in the C. & O. yard in South Portsmouth and came to Russell, coming from there to Ironton, and in the meantime becoming intoxicated. He claims that he met a man in Rist's saloon Saturday evening, and that the individual wanted to sell him a check on the Citizens' Bank of Grayson, Ky., which he bought from the fellow, so he claims for the sum of $10.00. When arrested today he had the check, together with a $1.00 bill in a pocket book, and investigation revealed the fact that the check had not been endorsed, nor had it been made out in ink. The bill was to be drawn on the account of Sam Shierrel, of Grayson, and Williams alleges that the amount was due the man for some tobacco that he had sold to Shierrel.

Officer King called up the bank at Grayson, and was informed that no such a man as Shierrel had an account at the bank, but that a man by the name of Shivel, a large tobacco dealer, was out of the city, having been called to Lexington.

It is the opinion of the chief that the fellow has forged the name of the dealer on the check, and as it was made out on February 5, the opinion is that he has been carrying it around for some time.

The man is 5 feet, 10 inches tall and weighs about 160 pounds and is otherwise like a description of a man who recently forged a check for $20 in Central City. The man will be held for a few days, and unless further evidence is brought against him, he will be released.

Billy Doyle Character In Ashenbach's Last Story

One of the last stories told by the late Eddie Ashenbach was with a straight face and every pretense of sober actuality, says the Cincinnati Times-Star. Ashenbach was walking with a slight limp and when asked how he got it explained that he had been over in the Blue Grass league to look at some promising youngsters. Not wishing to be seen in the ball park —which might cause the minor magnate to value his youngsters too highly—he climbed a hill which overlooked the ball yard. As he reached the top he stumbled over something hidden in the tall grass. It was Bob Gilks, the Cleveland scout, who was lying ambushed on the hill. Eddie fell down the far side of the hill, hurting his leg and would have broken his neck had he not fallen on top of Billy Doyle, the St. Louis scout, who was down at the bottom trying to dig a hole under the bleachers of the park.

He was a great card, this Ed Ashenbach, and a splendid fellow. The game was better because he was part of it, and the world was richer for the fun he gave.

To Manage Lima

Zeke Wrigley will probably pilot in Lima team this season, both as a magnate and manager. He and Lima parties are dealing for the franchise and it is now thought it will go through. It will be a good thing for Zeke to be financially interested. He will watch money affairs closer. That was his only trouble here, extravagance with other people's money.

GREAT BASEBALL FEATS VETERANS LIKE TO RETELL

Here are some of the baseball records made in the old days which the veterans delight to talk about:

In the 13 years between 1877 and 1890 "Silver" Flint caught 835 games, and in 824 of them he wore neither mask, glove nor chest protector.

In the 16 seasons between 1876 and 1892 Andrian C. Anson played in 1582 games and made 2252 hits. His batting average for the entire 16 years was .344.

In 1875 Boston won every game played on the home grounds.

In 1155 games, covering 12 consecutive seasons, Mike Kelly had a batting average of .321.

Hugh Duffy, with the Boston club in 1894, had the unprecedented batting average of .438.

The first no hit game ever pitched was by Joseph Mann of Princeton, N. J., against Yale, at New Haven. The game was played in 1875.

OHIO STATERS IN THIS DEAL

Zanesville wants to trade Outfielders Degroff and Reilley and Infielder Blake. The latter hit .262 last year, while Degroff banged out .252. The management believes that better men than these three can be secured for their places. Hillinger and Baggan will play two of the gardens, and Prysock has been secured for Blake's old place.

Bricks For Wine

"At the close of one season, when the Boston Americans swept everything before them," said Jess Tannehill, "John I. Taylor told the management of a big hotel where we were stopping to give us unlimited credit for anything we might desire. I never knew whether John I. was sorry afterwards or not, but the bill that was handed him footed up $800.

"Everybody had champagne unlimited, and Hobe Ferris put five quarts of the golden wine into a suit case. Chick Stahl, myself and three other players waited till it was almost time for Hobe to take the train for home. Then we deftly sneaked the five quarts out of the suit case and refilled it with bricks.

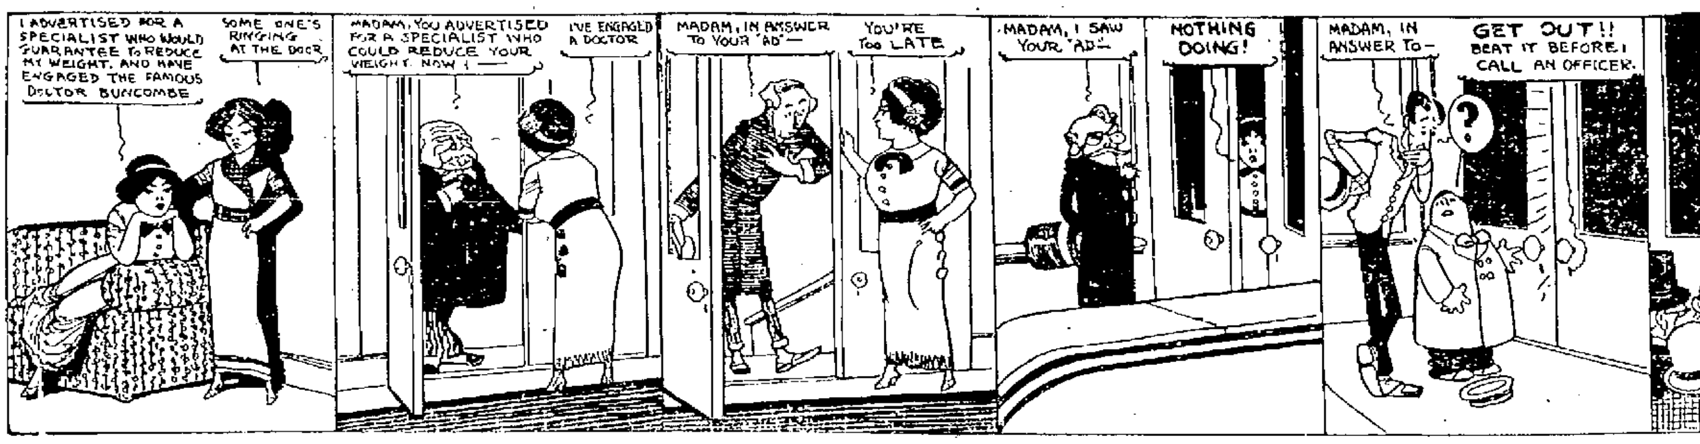

"Hobe, who wanted to take the stuff home with him, never opened the suit case on the train—probably for fear the sight of the five quarts would make him thirsty and force him to break into the supply. When he arrived and proudly opened the suit case to display his trophies, there was an interesting scene, though we could never get Hobe to give us the full details."

Reilly Off For South

Chillicothe, O., Feb. 20.—Emmit Reilly left Columbus today for Waco, Tex., by which team he was drafted from Chillicothe. Here's hoping the boy makes good. He has the natural ability to make a great ball player if he will. He didn't always give us his best, but perhaps it was not entirely his fault.

Holdout Heinie Zimmerman of the Chicago Cubs is on the market. Murphy is said to be willing to trade him to some good club for a serviceable pitcher.

NATIONAL MOGULS MAKE PREDICTIONS

New York, Feb. 20.—There will be no second division club in the National league this year, according to the following opinions:

By Joseph O'Brien, secretary of the Giants: "I do not see anything that will prevent the Giants from winning again. The club is certainly no weaker than it was last year; on the contrary, it is stronger. We have an advantage in having a champion while the other clubs must get one."

By Barney Dreyfuss of Pittsburg: "I wouldn't like to claim a pennant, but I think our club will be strong enough to be in the fight at all times. We have had considerable trouble in getting a good first baseman and that has held us back. I think we have solved that problem now and we will use either Hans Wagner or Jack Miller on the first bag. We have some strong pitchers and the Pirates ought to be in the running."

By Charles Murphy of the Cubs: "You can go and bet that we are going to come pretty near winning the pennant. Our club was weakened last summer by our pitchers going bad, but we look for better results this time. The luck won't be against us all the time. Of course we will miss Jimmy Doyle at third base. We will not only miss him as a player but personally. The poor fellow was just in his prime when stricken. With a man like Frank Chance as manager the Cubs always have a chance."

By Ned Steininger, president of the St. Louis club: "Roger Bresnahan did wonderful work with the material we had on hand last summer, and I believe we will finish better this time."

By Charles Ebbetts of Brooklyn: "With the best pitchers in the league and two of the best infielders the Brooklyn team will be in a position to cause more trouble this season than last. Dahlen has been working hard to get rid of a certain discordant element and when we have weeded out all the trouble makers our club will go right ahead. We are taking this chance for the pennant seriously and I look to see the club finish up among the four leaders."

By John M. Ward of Boston "Our club is much stronger than the records show, and I feel confident that they will crowd somebody for a place in the first division. We suffered last season for lack of pitchers, but we have some promising ones now. If they make good the Boston club will be hard to beat. There is no question about our club being able to hit."

By Garry Herrmann of Cincinnati: "We've got the pennant already won. The only regret I have is that we will have to give up 25 per cent of our share of the world's series. Seriously, though, I believe that we have a great manager in Hank O'Day. He has the material to work with and Cincinnati will certainly be in the running."

By Horace Fogel of Philadelphia: "A pretty good line on how the owners think about the coming race is shown in the vote on the proposition of the owners to give up 25 per cent of their share of the world's series receipts. The only clubs to vote against that were New York and Philadelphia. Those two clubs expect to win. I think the Phillies will win. We have three great pitchers in Alexander, Moore and Chalmers. Our club is strong in every other department."

Praise For Ex-Lank

Mansfield, O., Feb. 20. "Zeke" Reynolds during his period with the Mansfield club gave the management and the fans the best he had at every stage of the game, and not one fan, with a little thought, can deny that fact. He has been hardened during his career here by the continuous knocking of some fans, but despite this fact the aggressive player entered every game conscientiously and was always in the game to win. He has never been guilty of laying down as it is termed, and this season and for seasons after, as long as Mansfield has a ball team, the fans who have been stricken with the knocking fever, will within all probability regret all insults they whaled at the player when a new face appears at first base and who likely will not put up the class of ball that Reynolds did. The fans undoubtedly are willing to unite in wishing "Zeke" all success possible in his future baseball days.

"Zeke" first signed a Mansfield contract in 1905 and that entire season played right field. He led the team in hitting at the close of the season. In 1907 he returned to this club and was played at second base, at which position he played well and finished the season with an average close to the .300 mark. In 1908 and 1909 he played first base for Manager George Fox of the Lancaster club. His playing at that position there made such an impression on Fox and the fans that he was brought here in 1910 again when Fox managed Mansfield. Last season he again played first base and finished the season with a batting average of .277 and was one of the top notchers among the first basemen of the O. and P. league of which Roy Miller was a member, now with the St. Louis Americans.

RIVAL FEATHERS WILL FINISH TRAINING SOON

Los Angeles, Feb. 20.—Hundreds of visitors were at the rival training camps of Johnny Kilbane and Abe Attell today in Venice and Vernon, respectively, and saw the challenger and the featherweight champion go through their paces.

Both men worked hard and long. Kilbane was on the road before 8 o'clock this morning and for five miles did not break a dog trot. After a rub down [illegible] the luncheon with his wife and several friends, and at 2 o'clock was [illegible] at the gymnasium where for an hour he resorted to the handball, punching bag and medicine ball. Then he climbed through the ropes and boxed alternately with [illegible] Kilbane and [illegible] before an audience that taxed the capacity of the room. Kilbane appeared oblivious to the crowd and dug into his work as if he had a mind for nothing else. His sparring with Tommy Kilbane was [illegible] at times, but neither showed any disposition to avoid punishment.

Later in the afternoon the sparring exhibition was transferred from the gymnasium to the open air. [illegible] Kilbane was scarcely drawing a long breath. He expects today to [illegible] preparation. [illegible] Cleveland friends [illegible] "the [illegible] day," but otherwise he will allow himself to "step out" for the [illegible] on Thursday.

Abe Attell [illegible] and [illegible] days ago. [illegible] a slight [illegible] a few pounds for the benefit of [illegible] and some friends who called at his camp, but he went [illegible] about it. The wound in the lid has practically healed, and the stitches have been removed. The champion also went through his usual work at the gymnasium today with handball and punching bag. Tuesday will be his last work day.

It is the opinion of unprejudiced fight experts here that the odds quoted on Attell [illegible] are not warranted. That Attell respects Kilbane more than he is willing to admit is shown by his conduct since he reached California. He first went to a ranch for a week's rest, then opened his camp at [illegible] in Vernon, working in a secret manner that caused some [illegible] among his visitors, who had become accustomed to his slapstick methods of training.

Attell discounts that past reports to his friends [illegible] but this is partially disproved by the fact that within the month he visited a [illegible] whose decision is said to have been anything but encouraging.

A peculiar thing about Alexander, he pitched overhand in the minor leagues [illegible] and not show more than the average "much" pitcher. [illegible] the [illegible] delivery which he [illegible] would not be [illegible] was this [illegible] that [illegible] to the top [illegible] last season.

[illegible] McFarland [illegible] spoiled. It is possible that the [illegible] will have another [illegible] to see if [illegible] can be made.

Hobby For Brown

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Mordecai Brown of the Cubs for Dick Hoblitzell of the Reds.

That's what President Murphy of the Cubs is trying to put over. The news leaked out today that the trade may go through, explaining the many mysterious visits Murphy has made to Cincinnati the past two months.

Chicago needs a first baseman to take Chance's place, for notwithstanding the determination of the Cubs' peerless leader to play again, it is known neither Murphy nor any of Chance's men thinks the big bear will be good enough to play more than a third of the games. That is why Murphy wants Hoblitzell and wants him badly.

Cincinnati needs pitchers. Clark Griffith found that out to his sorrow last year, and Hank O'Day knows he'll have the same trouble, unless some of the recruits make good.

Hence the Murphy idea. Whether he will slip it over or not cannot be learned, but it is known Cincinnati is giving the trade serious consideration.

Hoblitzell is a great first baseman and a terrific hitter. He would be a whale with the Cubs. Brown is not through just yet, and, not worked too often, would be a great help to the Reds.

Cardinals Cannot Hit The First Ball

St. Louis, Feb. 20.—One of the unwritten law of the St. Louis National league club is: "Any player who hits the first ball subjects himself to a $10 fine.

"Waiting for the pitcher," is the secret of the Cardinals' success, to date—if Roger's club can be considered successful. The Robinson cadets always are angling for a base on balls. They are recognized in the National league as the hardest club in the circuit to pitch to.

When the official averages for the past season were published it was noted that not a member of the Cardinals had found his way into the charmed circle. There were 22 batters in the parent body who hit .300 or better, but none were Cardinals. Steve Evans topped the local list with .294. Koney was next with .289. However, the Cardinal managed to finish fifth while the Boston club with five .300 hitsmiths could get no higher than eighth. What's the answer?

Boston is a free-hitting club. The batters are out for base hits. They are looking to that average. They want to wind up in the .300 class at all hazards. They hit any time that they figure they can comb a single.

The result: Boston doesn't win as many games as the Cardinals.

The official averages which show that Evans topped the Cardinals with a swat mark of .294 does not indicate how often the comedian fly-chaser reached first via the four-ball route. The same goes for Koney, Huggins, Oakes and Houser, all good "waiters."

And this is the chief reason why the Cardinals stack up as such a poor batting club. Bresnahan believes by making a pitcher work, making him pitch at least four balls to every batter, he eventually will tire, and the chances for a garrison finish—if necessary—at the fag end of the game are greatly enhanced.

That is the reason, the fans may remember, why the Cardinals won so many games in the eighth and ninth innings.

However, this "wait him out" style of play is disastrous to the batting averages. Without H. Evans, Koney, Mowrey and Huggins probably would be .300 hitters. With it they find trouble climbing into the .250 class.

Tank Town Slips One Over Large Burgs In Production Of Star Diamond Artists

When one gets a line on the busy hundreds or the serried thousands engaged in the national game through every vacant piece of sod in the city, the first thought would be that metropolitan centers furnish the bulk of big league talent.

But with all the vast army from semi-pro, independent and corner lot teams whaling the ball in crowded centers of humanity, the tank town or the minor village smears it all over much larger rivals. New York may play faster ball than Happy Hollow, but most of the talent which frames the New York line came from Happy Hollow or some township of equal weight.

In addition to these, Wagner, Clarke, Alexander, Magee, Meyers, Plank, Bender, Daubert—and about two-thirds of the crop still eff-all drifted in from spots where the population is so sparsely scattered as smashing wallops in a two-hit game.

It would be easy enough to pick a team recruited from towns of 200 or less strong enough to rumple a big-town pick into a shapeless, discolored mass.

Ideals Are Victors Over Club Team

Showing the form that will doubtless land them the championship in the City basketball league, the Ideals completely [illegible] and overawed "The Club" team on the latter's floor last evening, winning in hollow fashion by the score of 41 to 15. Had the Ideals [illegible] up a half century score. [illegible] of the victors [illegible] the Club boys dizzy [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] more [illegible] than ever [illegible] of [illegible] this season.

The work of the Club team was away below par. [illegible] were whipped before they went on the floor, and were [illegible]. The team has put up some fairly good games this season [illegible] last night [illegible] Mr. [illegible] more [illegible] if not ability.

A large crowd was out and the Ideals supporters had everything to cheer for, while the Club partisans took it out in hoping. The score:

Joe Dukes, a flinger, last year with Charley Carr at Utica, is claimed by both Milwaukee and the Boston Nationals. The case has gone to the "commish." Heads Milwaukee loses, tails Boston wins. And there you are.

Columbias Are Victors Over Furniture Lads

The Columbias took all three games from the Hansen Five, Monday evening, at the Play House alleys, although their scores were away below par and they won because two of the Furniture Boys were absent. Had Distel and Smith been in the game, it is likely a different story would have been recorded.

Only one Columbian, Mr. Wilson, rolled up to snuff. Two of his games were quite classy, both being 182. His average was well up in the seventies and he is accordingly happy. John Wilhelm had an awful time getting started and then made up for his first two games by cracking the pins for 205. Dodge, Malavazos and Captain Jim Wanless were off their stride, especially the latter, who is thankful his scores were not hung up a few days ago, else that Chicago trip would have gone glimmering.

Knittle did the best work for the losers, his one score of 191 reminding him of ye old days. Hell, an amateur, did the best he could, which was somewhat frayed at the edges. Brisker lost the range on the head pin and never rolled three poorer scores in his life. Warnock, who never did pose as a bowler, had his troubles early and late while Brennan was fair, then good, then awful. The scores:

Columbias.	1	2	3
Dodge	169	157	157
Malavazos	125	164	166
Wilson	182	182	162
Wilhelm	145	115	205
Wanless	167	127	136
Totals	719	771	815

Hansens Five.	1	2	3

Hell	190	143	136
Brisker	156	145	122
Warneck	135	146	112
Brennan	148	145	118

Our Cultured Chap?

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 20.—President Watkins has revived and outlined an old policy, heretofore unmentioned in connection with the Indians, which he has already started to carry out in molding a new team. Watty comes from the old school of managers, where the "no lickin', no l'arnin'" idea prevailed on the ball field as well as in the school room, and although it has long since been discarded by the schoolmaster, Watty thinks the baseball manager will still find it of good use.

Back in the old days Watkins was a stickler for discipline—in the days when he brought a world's champion ship home to Detroit. Every man gave the club his best services then, and every man reported fit and ready when he was called upon to get in the game. There was no dissension in the ranks, and there was no player who could tell his fellow ball tosser more than could be told by his manager.

Watkins has started the work and Manager Jimmy Burke will keep it up when the playing season opens. Never before in the history of the club have so many conditional contracts been sent out—contracts that mean cutting to the quick the player's salary in case he fails to deport himself properly, both on and off the field. It is hardly necessary to say that some of the contracts contain a non-drinking clause.

The player who hustles and shows a willingness in his work will fare considerably better than the player of greater ability, but who is not in proper mood or condition to get in the game through some fault of his own. An exemplification of this is shown in the case of a young player who graduated from the ranks at Springfield last fall. Although he was considered good enough to hold down a berth here he has been listed with the Springfield club for another season. His deportment was bad after coming here last fall, and he must learn his lesson.

Spade And Leever To Play With Hams

Hamilton, O., Feb. 20.—The meeting of the rules committee of the K. I. O. league was postponed yesterday on account of Billy Trees, the chairman, meeting with a slight accident. The committee will meet in a few days.

It is possible that Hamilton may secure the services of a former National league pitcher for this year. Bob Spade, former star twirler of the Cincinnati Reds, is now living in Cincinnati, and may be induced to pitch for Hamilton.

Sam Leever, formerly with the Pittsburg team, is another possible pitcher. The veteran Pirate has retired from baseball and is living on a farm near Goshen, Ohio, and it is possible that he may be induced to play with Hamilton in the K. I. O. league this year.

Neither of these men have as yet made any promise to the local management, and are only being considered as possible players.

Jesse Burkett Was One Grateful Baseball Player

"Talking about signing contracts, I had an interesting experience with Jesse Burket back in 1902," said Bob Hedges the other day. "I was anxious to sign Jesse for 1903 and offered him $5000. He asked for a two-year contract and I produced one. Then Jesse said he would think it over and stuck the document in his pocket. I knew that John T. Brush was flirting with the great batsman, trying every way he knew how to line up Jesse for the New York Giants.

"I could do nothing. Burkett remained stubborn, and refused to sign. Finally the National and American leagues got together and framed up the peace agreement. The players were awarded the teams they were with at the end of the 1902 campaign. That gave me a clear title to Burkett. Two days later Jesse wired, asking me to meet him in New York. I met him and he said:

"'I guess you've got me going and coming, and I presume you'll chop that $5000 salary in half. Well it's all my own fault, I'm not kicking. Should have signed up when I had you right.'

"'Feel that way about it, do you, Jesse?' said I.

"'Sure thing,' replied Burket, 'I wanted too long, and I guess I'll have to take the short end of it.'

"'Well, just sign that $5000 contract for two years and hand it over,' said I.

"'I'll never forget you for this,' said Burkett.

"Three years later Burkett had a chance to 'make good,' and he did it like a gentleman. It was in the fall of 1905. Jesse felt that he was slipping and sliding, so he hunted me up and said:

"'Trade me, boss, I'm going back. Nobody knows it better than yours truly. You can get a dandy trade for me right now, and you had better turn the trick. It doesn't seem to make any difference to me where I play.'

"I took Jesse's tip and trade him to the Boston Americans for George Stone who pounded the cover off the ball for the St. Louis club for five years. It sure was a dandy trade for St. Louis."

Quinn Off For Meet

Columbus, O., Feb. 20.—Bobby Quinn left at noon today for Ft. Wayne, Ind., to attend the constitution meeting of the reorganized Central league. The "away from home" card will appear on his office door until Thursday. Bobby, along with W. H. Watkins, representing Springfield, W. E. Hebrick of Zanesville and Elmer Bedelle of Dayton are the constitution "con cos" and it will be up to them to do the "Herbert Bigelow et al." act for the Central magnates. It is possible that a schedule will also be made up by these persons during this meeting.

GIANTS ON BALL FIELD

Marlin, Tex., Feb. 20.—McGraw and his squad of Giants, the first of the big leaguers, to reach the training grounds got on the field today with balmy breezes blowing and the temperature at 78. The first practice was scheduled for this afternoon.

The Giant leader was in high spirits over the condition of a number of recruits. A local catcher will be engaged to help out until Grover Hartley arrives from New York. Wilbur Robertson, the Baltimore veteran, is the only backstop in the squad at present.

Leachie Cross will tackle Tommy Maloney in New York tonight at the Olympic A. C. These lads met twice and each has a win to his credit. Maloney remarks that it will be two for him soon.

CLEVELAND FANS CRITICISING DAVIS

Harry Davis, the new Cleveland manager, has prompted criticism by his refusal to assume the burden of signing his players. He has left it all to President Somers. Davis has assumed a difficult task, it seems. Cleveland fans have not forgotten the way George Stovall handled the Naps and landed them in third place last year. As a result they are ready to jump on Davis if he does not make the team win from the start. If Davis had not been signed before Stovall assumed the management it is said that the latter would have been retained by President Somers.

BASEBALL

The outlaw leagues having reached the money stage are dissolving. The Columbian announces a drop to a six club circuit and the United States is also in danger of losing its best cities.

Eddie Ashenbach's funeral was held Monday morning at Cincinnati. Floral pieces from all over the country was a tender tribute to a man who was a better friend to others than to himself.

Kid Elberfeld has once more decided going to the minors. The latest bulletin on his baseball status is that he has signed to scout for an American league club, whose identity is to be revealed later on.

When New York traded Knight for Catcher Street the Highlanders became mightily well fortified behind the bat with Sweeney and Street as a receiving pair.

TELEPHONE DAMAGE SUIT IS BEING TRIED BEFORE JUDGE BLAIR

The case of H. K. Pack, who sued for his daughter, Virgie Pack, aged 12 years, asking for $10,000 damages from The Portsmouth Telephone Co. for personal injuries, went to trial to a jury in Judge Blair's court Tuesday morning. Attorney James S. Thomas represents the plaiutiff, opposed to James & Micklethwait for the defendant, and each side presented quite an array of witnesses. The jury that is hearing the interesting litigation was composed of the following:

THE JURY.

Robert Clutts, Jno. A. Ruth, Jos. M. Augustin, Henry Pilson, Adolph Schapiro, J. W. Jordan, Ora M. Jones, R. B. Grimshaw, Lawrence Dill, John McCannon, Fred Benner, George Zaler.

The suit grew out of injuries sustained by the child on May 30, 1910, when, it is alleged, one of the defendant's telephone wires leading into his home on the West Side became heavily charged with a current of electricity during an electrical storm, and owing to the absence, it was set up, of a safety wire or lightning "arrester," the lightning was conveyed into the home and struck the child, as she was passing from one room to another, in such a violent manner, that one of her eyes was totally destroyed, her other eye greatly impaired, and that her general health became permanently injured on account of the nervous shock. It was further claimed that the defendant was negligent in the construction and installation of the telephone service into the home of plaintiff and should be held liable therefor. The telephone company for a defense denied any negligence or that the child was injured in the manner complained of, but on the contrary, it was maintained, that the accident was solely an act of the elements, and a direct act of lightning, instead of being carried in on the wire. The claim was further made by the defendant that they had the latest devices to divert electrical currents which they contended furnished adequate protection to the patron."

E. F. Seiler, local inspector for the board of insurance underwriters, was the first witness called. The witness stated it was his duty to furnish information of the hazard or risk on which the rates of insurance are based. It is his duty to inspect buildings in regard to electric and telephone wiring, and in his opinion the installation of lightning "arresters" were necessary to protect property and life." The inspector stated on cross-examination "that he had found it was not customary to install these "arresters" in this section and that he had not reported the lack of this equipment in general through this section."

Dr. S. B. McKerrihan, who was called to attend the girl, told of her condition a few hours after the accident. The witness stated that the girl's face was discolored, eye congested and a nervous disturbance which in his opinion is responsible for the cataract growth now on the optic which obscures the vision."

James West and Claude West, both experienced electricians, were called in an effort to establish that it was the custom of other telephone companies to use "arresters" for the protection of their subscribers. The defense objected to the evidence of the two experts and the objection was sustained, the court insisting that the facts of the case be brought before the jury.

Susanna Pack, mother of the girl was then called. She told of the storm and of running into the room when she heard her daughter scream. The child was lying prone on the floor," said the witness, "with her hair singed and her face burned black."

The mother was followed on the stand by the victim of the accident, little Miss telling her story in a straightforward manner. She stated that she had been helping her mother prepare dinner on the day she was hurt, when she started to enter the living room and was knocked down as she was passing through the door and close to where the telephone instrument was located on the wall." She said her left eye was knocked out by the shock, and is merely able to distinguish light from dark out of the injured optic since.

The girl said that she was unable to attend school as the other eye was so badly affected that she can't study.

Peter Coburn, a former who lived a short distance from the Pack home, testified of lightning striking a telephone pole of the defendant company, splintering it, on the day of the accident, and of his phone being put out of commission, presumably by the same flash. His testimony was corroborated by Mrs. Coburn, who was the last witness before the noon hour adjournment.

Afternoon Session.

Mrs. S. Lindsey was first witness called after court convened after the noon hour. Witness lives near Pack home and knew the victim of the accident before she was injured, and her eyes were good then. Saw her a short time after the storm and she was suffering with her eyes. The evidence of Sheridan Lindsey was substantially the same as his wife.

Margaret Boyd was at the Coburn home, near the Pack residence, on the day of the storm. She told of lightning coming in on the wires leading to the Coburn 'phone, putting it out of commission.

Frank Gazelle saw the telephone pole after it was struck and splintered by lightning.

Nora Pack, sister of the victim, related a story of the storm, of hearing her sister cry that her eye was hurt after she had been knocked down.

The deposition of H. K. Pack, father of the girl, was read, he being sick and unable to appear. Mr. Pack was in the room and saw the flash and his daughter fall.

Thos. C. Lantz, teacher of the Bertha school, where the injured girl was a pupil until two months ago, when she was forced to give up her studies on account of her eyes, testified.

The prosecution then rested and the defense was granted permission to subject the eyes of Miss Pack to an examination by their experts.

Dr. Francis W. Davis, eye specialist, of Cincinnati, was called by the defense.

He stated that after examining the eyes of Virgie Pack, that he discovered a cataract on her left eye, not fully developed.

He pronounced the right eye in good condition, but could not state cause of the condition of the left eye. Could result from a number of causes. In the opinion of the witness the cataract could be successfully removed by an operation. The witness was grilled on cross examination by Attorney Thomas, who secured an admission from him that he had never heard of or treated a case of eye trouble caused by lightning.

John C. McDowell, of Ironton, electrical engineer, said he was familiar with the local telephone plant, and that it was an up-to-date and modern one. The witness stated that the local system was equipped with the pole "arresters," it being regarded as safer protection against lightning than any other method used. One of these "arresters" was exhibited to the jury.

One of the box telephone instruments, such as was in use at the Pack home, was dissected, and all parts of its construction shown to the jury by the witness. The witness stated, in his opinion, that sufficient current of lightning had not passed through the box at the Pack home to knock a person down. McDowell adding, "That the instrument would certainly have been damaged."

At 3 o'clock the telephone company had only examined a few of their expert witnesses, and the case will not likely go to the jury before noon Wednesday.

Consumption Often Develops From Pneumonia

Consumption readily attacks those who have had Pneumonia. Many sufferers from Tuberculosis give a History of Lung and Pneumonia. The lungs thus weakened are more easily attacked by the germs that cause Consumption.

For all those with "weak lungs," especially those who have had Pneumonia, Eckman's Alterative is the appropriate remedy. Cures of Consumption are accomplished by Eckman's Alterative, first take it in time. There is no wisdom in waiting until Tuberculosis is established. Mr. Oursler is one of the big boosters of the electric line, and was instrumental in securing a large number of leases for the company throughout this section.

The work will be started at New Richmond, Ohio, and will be rapidly pushed forward throughout the summer. Mr. Oursler states that the company will be working long before the date of the extension of their franchise, which is May 22.

West Side land owners will be greatly benefitted by the line, which will pass up the valley close to the Ohio shore.

OTHER SIDE OF STORY

Mrs. Bessie Clifford, of Chillicothe street, states to the Times that she was not the instigator of the trouble with Fred Hinkle, which called her before Mayor Tynes Monday. Mrs. Clifford says she never slandered Mrs. Hinkle, as the man stated to a Times reporter, but his daughter called her a bad name. She claims that the trouble between the families started when she was compelled to report to the officials about Hinkle's hogs, which were too near her residence.

RICHARD CARLE TONIGHT

The Richard Carle Company came in from Huntington this morning with two cars of scenery and a good sized company. The Huntington Herald this morning had a lengthy and complimentary notice of Carle, Edna Wallace Hopper and other members of the company.

The seat sale at the Grand Opera House box office is exceptionally good and one of the characteristic "big show" audiences will greet these stars.

Coming attractions at the Grand include "The Country Boy" the best drama that will be here this year and moving pictures, Arrah Na Pogue, Wednesday and Thursday.

GROSVENOR'S VOICE IS AGAIN HEARD IN LAND

Chillicothe, Feb. 20—Despite all the noise and bluster of the local Roosevelt Club, the only one in the Eleventh Congressional district, the Taft adherents are the first to announce two delegates for the National Republican convention. Some few days ago Dr. C. O. Dunlap, of Vinton county, declared himself as being a candidate for Taft, and on Saturday there was a rattle as from the tomb when Hon. Charles Piggers Grosvenor, of Athens county, also shied his castor.

Uncle Charley is now a pensioner, thanks to President Taft, who made him a member of the Chickamauga Commission and for drawing his salary the sage of Athens will enter the arena.

Meanwhile the Lame Ducks here, with Peter Blosser at their head, are still trying to figure out the next best move. The city papers won't even give Peter credit for being a "dyed in the wool, blown in the bottle" candidate and say probably he will run. Of course that's kind a nasty way to treat a noble aspirant like Peter.

BANNON SOLD LAND TO JOHN PEEBLES

It is learned that a deal has been closed by which Arthur H. Bannon has sold to John Peebles the one-third interest he recently acquired in the extensive tract of land lying between the N. & W. Terminals and New Boston. The consideration is said to have been over $40,000.

The land originally belonged to the Peebles heirs, but in the settlement of the estate, a partition suit developed the title being John Peebles vs. Mrs. Elizabeth Peebles. The latter, subsequent to the filing of the suit, disposed of her interests to Arthur H. Bannon, and he became defendant in the suit. The property was appraised a few days ago and the sale of the property was expected soon under a court order. Since Mr. Bannon has sold his share however, the partition suit will of course, be withdrawn.

More Serious Charge Against Rienecke

The hearing of Marshall C. Rienecke, who it is alleged assaulted Miss Estelle Potts, the 19 year old daughter of Mr. Geo. Potts of Arion, at the Washington hotel, last Wednesday night and later at the Dennison hotel in Cincinnati, will be held at the county jail Wednesday noon.

Miss Potts, who has been in a hospital in Cincinnati, writes that she and sister will be here in time to attend the preliminary trial.

The charge against Rienecke has been changed from assault to criminal assault and it is said that he has employed Attorney Frankie, of Cincinnati to defend him.

Around the court house Tuesday afternoon it was reported that Rienecke had made a partial confession of his relations with the girl.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases, but it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

Joe Ketter Leaps To Death

"Joe," the big white and liver-red pointer belonging to Mrs. Fred C. Ketter, was instantly killed in a leap from the 100-foot trestle at Scioto ville, Monday afternoon.

The dog, known to practically every person in the city, was one of the finest specimens that ever ran across a stubble field. He weighed 92 pounds and was as gentle as a lamb. He was out hunting with his young master, Gene Ketter, and was on the trestle, when an N. & W. yard engine hove in sight. The dog ran to the middle of the trestle, and stopped. He gave one glance backward, and although the engineer had brought the engine to a stop, "Joe" became panic stricken and leaped to his death. He never moved after he struck the ice below, being killed instantly.

Mrs. Ketter had the carcass skinned and will have it mounted.

Tore Off His Coat Just Like B. Sunday

The men at the Terminals blacksmith shop thought that Billy Sunday had returned to the city Tuesday noon when Rev. A. J. Anthony, former pastor of the Grandview avenue Christian church, appeared in their midst and gave them a noon day talk.

Rev. Anthony took off his coat and collar in the famous Billy Sunday style and "went after" his subject in great fashion.

There were twice as many men listened to his address as usually stay to hear the noon talks of the local ministers, and for many minutes Rev. Anthony held the men interested in his scathing remarks about the "white slave" traffic.

Mr. M. H. F. Kinsey, of the Y. M. C. A., spoke at one of the shops, delivering one of his usual good addresses to the men.

DEIGLE

Immediately after the decision was announced, Sheriff Albert Sartain, of Franklin county, took Diegle in custody. Diegle will be taken to the penitentiary at once. If his behavior is good he will gain enough so-called "good time" to cut down his sentence from three years to two years and three months. Diegle has been a daily visitor at the state house since the convening of the constitutional convention. He removed his family from Sandusky to Columbus several months ago.

Diegle's conviction was the first step taken at the instance of the Ohio Manufacturers' Association to break up alleged bribery in the general assembly. The association found by experience that a coterie of members of the general assembly was both proposing and holding up measures in order to force the payment of money from persons interested. The favorite plan was to introduce measures known as "Milkers." A bill striking at a certain class or interest would be introduced, and a demand then be made for money to prevent it from going through. Good measures would be held up and threatened with defeat, so it is alleged, unless money was paid over to secure its passage.

To break up this business, the Manufacturers' Association brought three members of the Burns detective agency to Columbus last spring. These detectives were known as Bailey, Barry and Harrison. Harrison's right name is Frank Harrison Smiley. Bailey was supposed to represent the Bell Telephone Company; Barry, the Western Union, and Harrison, certain mutual insurance companies.

Bailey and Barry worked on the nine-hour women's bill, and Harrison on the mutual insurance bill. Bailey and Barry acted as outside men for Harrison, or Smiley.

One of the detectives suggested to Diegle that there was a person at the Chittenden hotel, prepared to do business on the insurance bill. The detectives secured two connecting rooms at the Chittenden hotel and installed a dictagraph in one, with the receiving end in the other room.

According to the evidence, Diegle went with Detective Barry to Harrison's room. Harrison told Diegle that he wanted to get the insurance bill out of committee, and asked the latter how it should be done. It is alleged Diegle replied that it could be done by getting four members of the committee. "I suppose you know all the fellows on that committee," said Harrison. Diegle answered, "Absolutely." Harrison then asked: "How much will it cost?" Diegle is alleged to have replied: "Cost $200 apiece." Harrison then inquired if the $800 to be paid would include their vote on the bill when it came to the senate. "I am afraid not," Diegle is alleged to have answered. According to the evidence, Diegle wanted $200 for his services. Diegle gave the names of Huffman, Cetone, Andrews and one other senator, so it is alleged, as being the men who, for $200 each, would vote the bill out of committee.

According to the evidence in the trial, these three senators went to the Chittenden hotel. When Andrews called, Harrison was out, and so he left a note for Harrison and sat down in the lobby of the hotel. Harrison came in, got the note and walked over to Andrews after the latter had been pointed out by the hotel clerk. The state, in its brief, says that Andrews and Harrison then went up to the latter's room, and that Harrison paid Andrews $200 for his vote on the bill.

According to the dictagraph evidence, as shown in this brief, Detective Harrison, in his conversation with Andrews, said: "I have already given Cetone his $200 and Ike Huffman his, and I will do the same with you; Cetone has promised me flatfooted that he will help get it out of committee." Harrison said that he would like to feel that Andrews would do the same.

According to the dictagraph evidence, Andrews said that there were three Republican members, one being himself, who stood together about "these matters." According to the state's evidence and the dictagraph report, in handing over the money, Harrison said: "There are the four fifties, Senator," to which Senator Andrews is alleged to have replied, "Yes."

The decision of the circuit court, upholding the judgment of the common pleas court, was written by Judge Pemeding, of Dayton.

In conclusion, the circuit court held: "Considering the whole record, we are of the opinion that the evidence offered sustains the verdict, and we find no prejudicial error. The judgment is, therefore, affirmed."

Anna Jackson Again Gets Into Trouble

Huntington, W. Va., Feb. 20.—Anna Jackson, the first woman arrested in West Virginia for violating the Johnson pistol law, was in police court with her husband, Monday to answer a charge of disorderly conduct. It is alleged the couple swore violently on the streets. Her previous arrest was on an occasion of her husband's being taken by the police. She followed him to police headquarters, to kill him, the police declare and was there disarmed by Captain Clingenpeel. She served six months in the county jail, for this offense. The woman was discharged; Jackson got a twenty dollar fine.

Anna Jackson is a name familiar to Portsmouth police also. Following her imprisonmen at Huntington for gun toting, the woman came to Portsmouth and entered upon a gay and giddy life. She was arrested a dozen or more times and finally chased out of town.

TELLS OF LOVE IN VERSE

New York, February 20 —
"I know that she loves me:
She's proved herself true;
I'll fight till I win her
I'll fight fire for you.

I long to clasp thee in my arms,
To hold thy hands in mine;
I wonder if the Lord will grant
This happy meeting time.

I long to call you dearie
And hear your soft reply;
Perhaps you think me fooling,
But for you, my dear, I'd die."

Averring that these and other tender verses prove that Edwin B. Houghton, a wealthy retired broker, once of Broad street, this city, now of Red Bank, N. J., had promised to marry her, Miss Ella Achenbach, of Jersey City, has brought suit against Mr. Houghton for $10,000 balm for his failure to fulfill his alleged promise to make her his bride.

Tangled in the romance are two divorce cases and one wedding. Miss Achenbach was known as Mrs. Ella Seiple, when, she says, she left the broker in June, 1908, and both she and Mr. Houghton were married, though neither lives with their life partners. Two years later, in July, 1910, Miss Achenbach asserts, she consented to wed Mr. Houghton.

That summer, she says, the first Mrs. Houghton sued for divorce naming Mrs. Seiple, and won her suit. Mrs. Seiple, in turn, divorced her husband and assumed her maiden name.

Then, so avers Miss Achenbach, when she was expecting to become Mr. Houghton's bride, he married another and nothing but $10,000 damages will console her.

DENY REPORT OF AN ELOPEMENT

According to a statement furnished The Times by Mrs. Myra McKenzie, wife of W. B. McKenzie, there is absolutely no truth in the published story that she and Fred Malone, of Union Mills, eloped the other day. Mrs. McKenzie said under her own signature, Tuesday: "I wish to thank my enemies for the injury they have done me, by saying that I left Portsmouth with Fred Malone. As Fred Malone has been a friend to me and my husband, I do not think he would be so low as to try to break up my home. So far as me eloping with any man, that is a mistake, as I have got a good husband, and one that is worthy of a good home.

"Fred Malone was seen on the streets, both at 7:00 p. m. Friday, the day we should have left together. He was also seen on the streets Saturday and Sunday, and my husband was with him. I hope you will be so kind as to put me right with the Times readers."

Mr. McKenzie sent the following statement, which he signed: "I wish to state that the notice that I had put in the paper yesterday be annulled, as at the time I did it I was angry, and since then I have found out that my wife was at Huntington and at Catlettsburg with my sisters and brothers. I listened to stories that were told by my enemies. Everything was all right, but I was too quick to believe rumors."

Evidently everything is lovely at the McKenzie home in the North End.

Why Should I Use Cuticura Soap?

"There is nothing the matter with my skin, and I thought Cuticura Soap was only for skin troubles." True, it is for skin troubles, but its great mission is to prevent skin troubles. For more than a generation its delicate emollient and prophylactic properties have rendered it the standard for this purpose, while its extreme purity and refreshing fragrance give to it all the advantages of the best of toilet soaps. It is also invaluable in keeping the hands soft and white, the hair live and glossy, and the scalp free from dandruff and irritation.

While its first cost is a few cents more than that of ordinary toilet soaps, it is prepared with such care and of such materials, that it wears to a wafer, often outlasting several cakes of other soap, and making its use, in practice, most economical. Cuticura Soap is sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, but the truth of these claims may be demonstrated without cost by sending to "Cuticura," Dept. M, Boston, for a liberal sample cake, together with a thirty-two-page book on the skin and hair.

V. E. MARTIN ENDORSED AS CITY INSPECTOR

Central Labor Council at its regular meeting Monday night unanimously endorsed V. Emery Martin for the proposed new position of city building inspector.

Mr. Martin is a popular young painter of West Ninth street and employed with Contractor O. D. Foster. It will be recalled that the labor council and all affiliated bodies recently petitioned city council to create the office of a building inspector mainly with the view of protecting such workmen who work from the cornices of buildings as well as to safeguard pedestrians against accidents at buildings under course of construction. It was the local painters' union that first advocated the new office.

REAL THING IN BACHELORS

Times Bachelor Club:—In looking through your list of members, active and prospective, we are surprised to note that you have omitted the name of our friend, Fred Jansen, familiarly known as "Jack."

We are unable to understand why Jack has not been landed long before this. Jack is tall, not overly, straight as an arrow, active as a French dancing master, black curly hair tinged with gray (which gives him a very distinguished appearance) and the gray is not caused by age, either, as we are positive he is not near thirty. They all say that when Jack starts out in the morning after his orders, all the girls along his route are waiting for that smile of his.

He has a dandy grocery, does an immense business and always has plenty of money in the bank. He has one of the finest driving horses in the city, and the only objection any young lady could have to it is that Jack is compelled to use both hands in driving.

Jack says that he has everything to begin housekeeping with, except the house and a better-half. Dishes, cooking utensils, furniture, carpets, etc., all brand new. Now girls, what better chance would you want?

P. S.—Since writing the above, we understand that Jack is promised.

Murder Trial Is Now On At Greenup, Ky.

Several months ago a dispute arose between Henry Robbins and Daniel Evans over a line fence. They were neighbors and resided just back of Greenup.

Unable to agree as to where the division line should go down they became involved in a quarrel that ended in murder, Evans being so badly wounded by Robbins that his death ensued the day following the tragic event. The weapon used was a double barrel shotgun, a family heirloom, it is said.

The shooting took place three months ago and Robbins' trial was begun Monday before Judge Halbert at Greenup. The jury was secured last night and the trial is now under good headway. The principal witnesses will be a crippled son of the man who was shot down, and Walter Ratcliff, who several years ago lost both of his legs in a derailment at the plant of the Portsmouth Steel Company. They were eye witnesses to the tragedy.

Robbins is being defended by Attorney A. S. Cooper and Col. Worthington, of Greenup, and the prosecution is being looked after by W. L. Wilhoit, of Ashland, and Commonwealth Attorney Will Cole.

Much interest is being taken in the trial, the court room being packed with spectators Monday. Robbins' attorneys have put up a self defense plea and some interesting features will crop out during the progress of the trial, which may last several days.

Cinti. Auto Show Opened Monday

Cincinnati, Feb. 20.—Cincinnati's great automobile show opened Monday night last, Feb. 19th, with a rush of visitors that made it necessary to turn away no fewer than 1,000 persons. No such attendance, interest and enthusiasm have ever before been evident at any public event held in the Queen City.

Out-of-town visitors were generous with their presence, West Virginia leading off with the largest number, with Kentucky a good second.

On all sides it was granted that no exaggeration had been spoken in describing the decorations as superb and the motor car displays as one seldom equalled.

That racing wonder, the Marmon "Wasp", was a strong magnet to every observer, its grace of lines being particularly admired.

Delight was expressed at the variety of brilliant colorings offered in the newer car bodies, tendency leaning toward the pure white, bright red, soft olive and rich green. One machine radiant in delicate robin's egg blue, was voted truly magnificent.

An electric coupe, with body entirely in ivory, flashed off by platings of gold in every part of the machine, showing even the smallest part of metal, was positively startling in effect.

Wednesday is to be gala night for the Cincinnati Automobile Club, with its president, Dr. C. E. Bonifield, and aiding board of governors doing the honors to members and attendant friends. The Club has been housed in a beautiful booth, suggesting the famous Country Home on Colerain Pike, in its broad sweep of wide veranda.

A feature causing no end of delight are the brilliant programs of popular music presented afternoon and evening by Weber's celebrated band.

Most of the principal makes of automobiles are exhibited.

GOOD ROADS PLAN WAS APPROVED

Columbus, O., Feb. 20.—The levied and collected annually by constitutional convention Monday night adopted the Lampson provision for good roads by a vote of 72 to 40.

Previous to this action it defeated what is known as the Stilwell proposal, providing for the levying of a tax of three-fourths of a mill on the grand duplicate of the state for 10 years, the division being 44 yeas to 67 nays.

It is upon this method of raising the funds that the debate has raged, the farmers for the most part composing the group that stood opposed to the bonding proposition. It was repeatedly declared that the rural voters would never ratify any proposition toward the bonding of the state. The proposal adopted last night, which may be regarded as final as to substance, will be submitted to the people in about this form:

"The General Assembly may contract debts and authorize the issue of bonds to an amount, which, in the aggregate, shall not exceed $50,000,000, for the purpose of constructing, improving, maintaining, repairing and rebuilding a system of inter-county wagon roads throughout the state. Not to exceed $10,000,000 in such bonds shall be issued in any one year, and there shall be levied and collected annually by taxation an amount sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund for their final redemption at maturity.

"Such wagon roads shall be determined under general laws, and the cost thereof shall be paid by the state."
